The New Philanthropists

Celebrating People Who Have Made a Contribution to Our Community and Our Future

Jordan Billinkoff – Continuing a Tradition of Generosity

Jordan is a 21 year old student at the University of Manitoba's Asper School of Business. He opened his Bar Mitzvah Fund in October of 2002, at the age of 13. Jordan believes in giving back to the institutions that have nurtured him.

Jordan is honoured to be on the cover of this year's Foundation Annual Report. He hopes to continue his philanthropic work and to serve as a positive role model for the youth of our community.

Jason Gisser – Making an Impact

Jason is 27 years old and practices law at Aikins, MacAulay & Thorvaldson LLP. In 2003 Jason was diagnosed with "Ameloblastoma", a very rare benign oral tumor. Between 2003 and 2008 Jason underwent numerous procedures and reconstructive surgeries. In March of 2010 Jason established the Jason Gisser Fund for Oral Tumor Research. As a past recipient of the Foundation's "Ruth and Joe Freed and Stephen Freed and Family Academic Award" Jason is honoured to be able to give back to the community in a meaningful way.

Ahava Halpern – Proudly Supporting the Jewish Community

Ahava is 46 years old and a graduate of Joseph Wolinsky Collegiate, where she learned the basis and importance of Tzedakah. Ahava says that her charitable giving stemmed from the example set by her parents, Esther and Sid, and through her connection to the State of Israel. She also attributes her dedication to community to her loving husband Frank Lavitt. In 2010 Ahava established a Women's Endowment Fund at the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba and is encouraged by the wonderful work the WEF does in support of women in Manitoba.

Alexander Serebnitski – Planning Ahead for Tomorrow

Alex is 26 years old and has been practicing dentistry for one year. Alex was born in the Ukraine and moved to Winnipeg from Israel when he was 18 years old. Alex received numerous scholarships from the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba, assisting him in completing his studies and because of the generosity of our Jewish community, he was determined to give back. Alex established the "Serebnitski Family Fund" to assist students in their educational pursuits. Alex is a volunteer dancer with the Sarah Sommer Chai Folk Ensemble and is proud to be considered one of the new philanthropists.

Liat Stitz – Sharing a Love of Music and Education

Liat is 13 years old and has just completed grade 7 at the Gray Academy of Jewish Education. Liat established her Bat Mitzvah fund at the Jewish Foundation in September 2010 and in November was called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah. Liat is looking forward to distributing the income from her fund next year and is considering children's charities in Israel. Liat plays piano and flag football, she goes to Camp Massad every summer and loves it. Liat hopes that using her Bat Mitzvah money to better her community will set an example for others to do the same.

Message From the President and CEO

The Jewish Foundation of Manitoba receives and distributes millions of dollars every year and continues to excel because of a committed, engaged donor base and a talented team of volunteers, staff and advisors. We truly care about the city of Winnipeg and the province in which we live and our Jewish identity and sense of community are at the foundation of much of our success. The 2010 Annual Report confirms our community's future is indeed very bright.

Some notable highlights of the year include $6.3 million in new donations, increasing total assets at year-end to over $71 million. The Foundation distributed $2.7 million in grants, scholarships and donor-designated commitments. We are encouraged by the growth of the Women's Endowment Fund as it nears the $1 million milestone.

During 2010, the Foundation launched the Endowment Challenge; a matching program for organizations that is bringing new growth to many organizational endowment funds and will bring significant revenue to the Foundation over the long term. We continue to recognize donors joining the Endowment Book of Life bequest program, which has grown to 640 signers in 13 years. To date these bequests have contributed one-third of the Foundation's asset base. We can say with certainty that the generosity of our donors has ensured the Foundation can continue doing the very important work necessary to support both individuals and our community's many valuable service organizations.

A number of new scholarships were established in 2010, most notably from past scholarship recipients, reassuring us that our next generation is becoming engaged. As highlighted on our cover, the 'New Philanthropists' are a symbol of the future for our community and Foundation.

An important goal of the Jewish Foundation is to provide donors with opportunities to fulfill their philanthropic dreams. By working together with them we are ensuring our most pressing and important community needs are being met. We are grateful to our donors for their steadfast commitment and support allowing us to be a strong foundation for the community – thank you.

Message from the Director of Finance & Operations

The 2010 financial statements convey the good news that the major portion of the negative impact from the economic events of 2008 is behind us. The Foundation's asset value exceeded $70 million thanks to the continued confidence and support of our donors. During 2010, gifts totaling $6.3 million increased the contributed capital of the Endowment Funds to $71 million. The growth provided by your endowment gifts translate to an increasing pool of income that is available to the community in the form of undesignated and designated grants and scholarships.

The market recovery that commenced during 2009 contributed greatly to 2010 operating performance. The 2010 investment return of the invested capital was 8.84% (net). A positive turnaround from 2009 of +$4 million in realized capital gains enabled the Foundation to disburse and/or commit to $2.7 million in undesignated and designated grants and contribute $2 million to the 2009 operating deficit.

Our objective for 2011 is to work hard to continue the positive momentum through appropriate stewardship. The Investment Committee consists of a group of volunteers that bring to the table in-depth investment and business acumen. These dedicated individuals are a highly cohesive group; setting and implementing policy in accordance with dynamic market conditions. Their efforts contribute greatly to the overall long term success of the Foundation.

As part of our philosophy of "kaizen" or continuous improvement, the Foundation has recently invested in technologies that will serve to enhance our connections with the community. Our objective is always to strive for an even higher level of service and greater efficiencies.

Ian Barnes, CGA
Director of Finance & Operations

2010 Financial Statements

Report of the Independent Auditor on the Summary Financial Statements

To the Board of Directors of the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba

The accompanying summary financial statements, which comprise the summary statement of financial position as at December 31, 2010 and the summary statement of revenues, expenses and grant commitments for the year then ended are derived from the audited financial statements of the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba for the year ended December 31, 2010. We expressed an unmodified audit opinion on those financial statements in our report dated May 9, 2011.

The summary financial statements do not contain all the disclosures required by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles. Reading the summary financial statements, therefore, is not a substitute for reading the audited financial statements of the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba.

Management's Responsibility for the Summary Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation of a summary of the audited financial statements in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the summary financial statements based on our procedures, which were conducted in accordance with International Standard on Auditing (ISA) 810, "Engagements to Report on Summary Financial Statements."

Opinion

In our opinion, the summary financial statements derived from the audited financial statements of the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba for the year ended December 31, 2010 are consistent, in all material respects, with those financial statements, in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

YOUTH IN PHILANTHROPY GRANTS

Annually, the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba provides $3,000 to the students at Gray Academy for their Youth in Philanthropy program. The students research charities and make allocations of $2,500. $500 is used for administration. In 2010 the students distributed:

- $300 to the Addictions Foundation of Manitoba for a defibrillator
- $550 to the Canadian Diabetes Association for raising awareness of Camp

In addition, many donors have named the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba as beneficiary in policies which they own.

♦ of blessed memory

Monies directed from the Maple Leaf Curling Club Fund at the Foundation were given to Special Olympics Manitoba in support of a curling project or program. Pictured here is Jewish Foundation of Manitoba Board Member Ceci Gorlick (R) with Ken Stevens, Director of Regional Development.

Donations to the Foundation

In general, funds at the Foundation are either Undesignated or Designated. Undesignated funds give the Foundation flexibility to address current and evolving community priorities and fulfill annual scholarship and grant obligations. Designated funds support organizations and causes as directed by the donors, either permanently (directed in a will or fund agreement) or on an annual basis. All distributions are approved by the Board.

Bar & Bat Mitzvah fund-holders have the annual opportunity to direct the income from their funds. Together with other designated and undesignated grants, the Foundation was able to contribute over $220,000 to the Canadian Museum for Human Rights in 2010. Pictured here are Jewish Foundation of Manitoba President, Ed Shinewald (L) with Stuart Murray, President & CEO of the Museum.

Even a Foundation Needs a Foundation

"As my fathers planted for me before I was born, so do I plant for those who will come after me."

The Jewish Foundation of Manitoba takes this Talmudic statement to heart. We recognize the great sacrifices and even greater foresight our leaders showed in building this community and ultimately establishing the Foundation. Today, inspired by their example, we continue to plant seeds so that our children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren will be able to enjoy a vibrant community.

As a community made up of immigrants and their descendants, we understand what it means to be vulnerable; what it means to face adversity. Today, we pay homage to our modest roots by helping our own community and the entire city. We help organizations outside of the Jewish community because we are proud to be Winnipeggers, Manitobans and Canadians, and recognize that we have an important role to play in building this great city and country.

Jews come in many varieties. We observe rituals differently, we come from different places and we have different political opinions but there are things that link us together and form an unbreakable bond among us. One is our rich history; another is our commitment to serving our communities through acts of tzedakah.

The Foundation is a product of history and a product of our values. We are proud that we are building a foundation that so warmly and successfully reflects the best of what Jewish community life is all about. We are proud that so many members of our community, year after year, express their affection for the community and their optimism for the future by contributing to the Foundation.

Thank you for helping us plant seeds for tomorrow.

During 2010, Rady Jewish Community Centre received over $116,000 in support from the Foundation to expand the culture and care of our Community. Over $6,000 of that came from the Rady Centre's own endowment fund at the Foundation. Pictured here is the JFM President, Ed Shinewald (CL) with Gayle Waxman (CR), Executive Director and some "happy campers" at the RJCC.

"As my fathers planted for me before I was born, so do I plant for those who will come after me."

- THE TALMUD

71 students received
$130,000 in education awards from the Foundation in 2010.
Pictured here are just some of the grateful recipients.

Gray Academy of Jewish Education receives monies from the Foundation for scholarships, capital purchases such as Smart Boards, as well as operational costs. During 2010 over $185,000 was given to the school from both designated and undesignated grants. Pictured here is Foundation volunteer, John Silver (CR) with Rory Paul, Head of School & CEO (CL).

The Foundation offers donors an opportunity to provide gifts for immediate granting to the charity of their choice. During 2010, the Royal Winnipeg Ballet was the recipient of such a gift as well as other donor-directed monies. Pictured here is Foundation volunteer, Steven Raber (R) with Jeff Herd, Executive Director of RWB.

Mission

The Jewish Foundation of Manitoba, in keeping with our Jewish heritage and values, encourages and facilitates the creation and growth of endowment funds to enable the community to realize its potential. The Foundation maintains effective stewardship over all assets entrusted to it; distributes grants that reflect donors' wishes and community priorities; and provides leadership in the Jewish and general communities.
