Generations Building Community Together

What keeps a family strong?

Values. Stability. Flexibility. Respect. Kindness. Wisdom. Passion.

The same can be said for a community, particularly the Jewish community of Winnipeg. In many ways, we function as a family. We take care of our most vulnerable members; we teach and we learn from each other; we mourn; we celebrate; we share. And, consistent with Jewish values, we reach out to other communities, to other families.

A community's success is anchored by institutions pursuing and achieving excellence. That pursuit requires a sound financial base. For our community – our family – that base is the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba. In fact, it could be said that the JFM is our community's "family business."

When the original founders of the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba put pen to paper in 1964 to bring the JFM into being, these visionaries were taking a bold and innovative step to strengthen the community of the future. They were launching a family business, developing a succession plan, and putting their faith in today's and tomorrow's leaders to go from strength to strength.

Today, the family business has assets of roughly $73 million. Last year, nearly $3 million in revenues were distributed through grants and scholarships, and through donor-advised funds. JFM is proud that our efforts enhance life in the community.

We're a caring family. We're a generous family. We're a strong family.

Marjorie Blankstein, CM, OM

For Marjorie Blankstein the parallel between community and family is clear.

"In a family, you have a sense of love and responsibility for each other," she says. "You have a commitment to ensure the family's safety and to ensure its future. It's the same for a community."

Marjorie Blankstein is a well-known volunteer, fundraiser, and leader in the Jewish and general communities. More than 30 organizations have benefited from her involvement over the years. Today, she represents the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba's Board of Governors on the Foundation's Board of Directors.

She is extremely proud of the success our community has enjoyed in the last quarter-century.

"Twenty-five years ago we had no idea what our community was going to look like today," she says. "Through hard work and with the opening of the Campus and the launch of Grow Winnipeg, it has been an exciting time! Our newcomers have been a tremendous asset and they've added vibrancy to the community, Rady JCC, the Federation, Jewish Child and Family Service, our synagogues, and more."

She points out, though, that as our community changes, so will the needs.

"We will need more daycare spaces, more camping spaces, more programs for seniors, and services we might not even know about yet."

Marjorie Blankstein believes that the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba will have an important role to play.

"With a strong Foundation, our funds are there to secure the well-being of the community in perpetuity."

Special Thanks

Making a Difference in Our Community

The Board and Staff of the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba thank Marjorie and Morley Blankstein for their exceptional generosity with their recent gift of $2.4 million to the JFM. This gift will perpetually endow an annual legacy to nine organizations in our community, including: the Jewish Federation of Winnipeg, the United Way of Winnipeg, and Jewish Child and Family Service. This kindness will change lives and enhance our community. Marjorie and Morley are true role models. We are grateful for their leadership.

Larry Vickar

"The essence of Judaism, Jewish values, and Jewish life in Winnipeg is at least partly determined by the strength of our institutions and their programming," says Larry Vickar, a member of the JFM Executive Committee. "And financial sustainability is the lifeblood of these institutions."

Larry Vickar has been actively involved in many Winnipeg organizations, both in the Jewish community and in the general community. "I see volunteerism as a responsibility, not as a burden." Community involvement is a value near and dear to him and it's a value he shares with his family and with his employees.

What excites him about the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba, in particular, is its enormous potential and the remarkable sense of responsibility he feels as a member of the Executive.

"The community – our family, past and present – has entrusted us with $73 million," he says. "It's our responsibility to make sure that we make the best possible decisions about the distribution of funds. We need to understand the needs of today and tomorrow. It's a huge challenge, but it's also a rewarding opportunity."

For Larry Vickar, philanthropy is a cornerstone. "Gifting through the Foundation is a way of being philanthropic when your years are over. A way of demonstrating your love of community – forever," he says.

"That's very powerful."

Allison Axelrod

For Allison Axelrod, her husband Bob, and their two sons, the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba provides a "focus and an opportunity to talk about life in the Jewish community."

Their sons, Gavin and Steven, were fortunate to have Bar Mitzvah funds opened for them at the JFM by their grandfather, Robert Hyman and his wife Barbara.

"Having the funds has helped us look at philanthropy in different ways with our kids," Allison says. "They go to Gray Academy and BB Camp and now understand that those organizations and others need funds to stay strong. They understand that some of that money comes from the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba and they also understand that through their funds at the JFM they, too, will be donors."

Jewish community and Jewish living have always been essential parts of Allison's life – through Ramah School, USY, BBYO, BB Camp, Shaarey Zedek, the Rady JCC, Gray Academy, and others.

Larry Vickar

Allison Axelrod

She believes strongly that Jewish life in our community is enhanced by welcoming, purposeful institutions.

"We feel very much a part of this community," she says. "The community is our extended family."

Juan Mohadeb

Meet Juan Mohedeb – incoming Vice-President of the Student Council at the Gray Academy of Jewish Education.

Juan and his family moved to Winnipeg in 2001 from Buenos Aires, Argentina, at a time when economic crisis had a grip on the country. The Mohadebs came to Canada in search of a better future.

"My parents saw Canada as a free country where they could raise a Jewish family and provide a good future for their children," says Juan. "One of the things that attracted them to Winnipeg was the nature of our Jewish community here. I'm really happy they chose Winnipeg."

Juan Mohadeb happily says he is "surrounded by Jewish involvement every day of the week! I feel very connected to the Jewish community. We look out for each other. That's what a community does."

Now 16, Juan has a Bar Mitzvah Fund at the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba. "I wanted to give back to Jewish community," he says. "They helped us settle in Winnipeg. Now that we're settled, I want to help other newcomers."

For Juan, helping others is part of his responsibility as a young member of the Jewish community. "Being Jewish is something you can identify with no matter where you live," he says. "It unifies us all."

Liat Schultz

The hard work, passion, and sense of community connection shared by Marjorie Blankstein, Larry Vickar, Allison Axelrod, and Juan Mohedeb will ensure that there is a strong, vital community for Liat Schultz and her peers.

Liat is nine and is in Grade 4 at the Gray Academy of Jewish Education. She goes to synagogue regularly at Etz Chayim, attends BB Camp, graduated from the Kaufman Child Care Centre, and is excited about Jewish holidays and Jewish life. Her parents and teachers have described her as caring, energetic, and smart.

It won't be long before Liat becomes a decision-maker in our community – when she and her friends are leading the family.

As a strong community and as a remarkable family, we owe Liat and her peers a strong Foundation. And it will be Liat's responsibility to leave an even stronger Foundation for those who follow her.

That's what a successful community does. And that's what a successful family does.

Message from the President and CEO

Take a look at the cover of this report. You'll see established community leaders; a young parent; a teen; a child. An intergenerational snapshot of our Jewish community – our family.

A strong family needs a stable home. A stable home needs a strong foundation. We see the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba as this family's strength, as this community's source of stability for the future.

2011 was an important year for the JFM and an important year for re-affirming our strength as Manitoba's second largest community foundation. The market, as we all know, has been unkind in recent years, but we started to see a healthy turnaround in late 2011 that carried into the new year. More importantly, we attracted $5.4 million in new donations in 2011. That's a very strong statement of support from the community, from our family. A true celebration of our community's commitment to tzedaka – to helping each other, and others.

The year also provided some other important highlights. There was the remarkable estate gift from the Silverberg brothers – David, Morris, and Ernest – in honour of their parents; our Women's Endowment Fund reached $1 million in total assets; we hired new personnel to make us more nimble in working with donors; there were 31 new signers of the Endowment Book of Life; 20 new Bar/Bat Mitzvah Endowment Funds were opened; and we distributed more than $2.8 million in grants, scholarships, and donor-advised funds to worthy recipients and to organizations improving lives in Manitoba.

2011 reminded us in no small way that this community is indeed a family and the JFM is indeed a solid foundation upon which a future can be built.

As in all families, success is based on partnership, good communication, empathy, hard work, and passion. The Jewish Foundation of Manitoba is committed to all that and more.

The late Spanish-American poet, George Santayana, once described family as one of "nature's masterpieces." The same can be said for our Jewish community.

Now in our 48th year, we look forward to great things; we look forward to being the foundation of our ever-changing masterpiece – of our ever-changing family.

FOUNDATION CUMULATIVE CAPITAL AND GRANTS

Message from the Director of Finance & Operations

The glow of one warm thought is to me worth more than money ~ Thomas Jefferson

We offer several warm thoughts as we contemplate the cold reality of an investment market that returned -2.6% (net) for the Foundation during 2011.

Despite the disappointing market performance, the community's confidence remains strong as demonstrated by new contributions of $5.4 million in 2011. During this time of volatile market returns, the last quarter of 2011 and first quarter of 2012 offered positive net returns of 3.5% and 4.9% respectively. These are the first two consecutive quarters of positive returns during the last 12 months.

It is appropriate for a community foundation to undertake regular reviews of investment structure and activity. During 2011, the Investment Committee launched an exhaustive exercise of due diligence in reviewing the Foundation's investment philosophy, structure, advisors, and managers. We look forward to receiving the Committee's recommendations during the summer of 2012.

Non-financially, activity is greater than ever at the Foundation as measured through the continued enthusiasm for the Foundation's programs and activities.

For example, our highly successful Endowment Book of Life program attracted 31 new signers in 2011; 671 in total. It's a remarkable statement of our community's optimism and pride – not to mention a statement of the power of endowment giving.

Our donors and grant recipients remain engaged and enthusiastic, and our staff and volunteers continue to raise the bar. Together, we are working toward the best possible financial and community-building returns.

Notwithstanding some down market years from time to time, the long-term horizon is very promising; the Foundation will certainly grow and provide increasing resources and leadership to the community.

On the topic of leadership, we are pleased to report that during 2011 the Foundation hired its first Grants Officer, Patricia Herd. Patricia brings extensive knowledge of the community and will be an important resource to the Grants Committee as well as community organizations.

During 2011 the Foundation moved to a market value-based distribution system in order to fairly value individual endowment funds based on the timing of contributions. The income earned by each fund is now based on that fund's market value. The endowment funds now operate like pooled investment funds that you might purchase through your financial advisor.

As we have since 1964, we continue to work diligently for today and for the future by providing professional stewardship of the community's assets. We're grateful for your support.

As a partner in philanthropy, the JFM was pleased to provide donor-directed monies to the Winnipeg Foundation in 2011 and as a beneficiary of the "David Silverberg Estate", the Winnipeg Foundation will continue to receive these monies on an annual basis. Pictured here is JFM President, Steve Kroft, with Rick Frost, CEO of the Winnipeg Foundation.

Animal care continues to be a popular choice as many Bar and Bat Mitzvah fund-holders make their annual distribution decisions. In 2011, the Winnipeg Humane Society received almost $6,000 in donations from the Foundation – a good portion of it from Bar/Bat Mitzvah funds. Pictured here is Foundation Past-President, Ed Shinewald, with Christine Boult, Director of Development at the Humane Society.

 - The development of a training manual and staff orientation at the Rady Jewish Community Centre
 - The Winnipeg Jewish Theatre's production of "Way to Heaven", a play written about the Holocaust
 - A new Canadian musical "My Mother's Lesbian Jewish Wiccan Wedding" by Winnipeg Studio Theatre
 - Funding to the Winnipeg International Storytelling Festival for their featured story teller, Monique Saigal-Escudero, who was a "hidden child" in France during the Second World War

SPECIAL GRANTS

Special grants are offered to individuals or organizations for creative initiatives that address needs not currently being met in Winnipeg's Jewish community, or that address social and community awareness issues in creative formats. The following special grants were awarded in 2011:

- To Aliza Amihude for the recording and production of an album, that will feature mainly Yiddish lyrics
- To Noah Erenberg for a documentary about Zara Nelsova, a Jewish woman born in Winnipeg's North End in 1918, who became the best female cello player in the world
- To the Winnipeg Chinese Cultural and Community Centre to feature a speaker as part of an exhibit on the 20,000 European Jews who were rescued from the Holocaust, found sanctuary in Shanghai, and later moved to Manitoba

WOMEN'S ENDOWMENT FUND GRANTS

The Women's Endowment Fund encourages women to fulfill their philanthropic potential, and raises funds in support of Manitoba women. In 2011, Women's Endowment Fund grants supported:

- Financial support to B'nai Brith Jewish Community Camp to assist immigrant female Canadians interested in attending the camp for the first time
- A pilot program to link young mothers to social services, healthcare, and education with the guidance of trained mentors at Big Brothers Big Sisters of Winnipeg
- Workshops and consultations to provide women with legal information and resources at Fort Garry Women's Resource Centre
- Transportation and headsets to women attending a Yiddish group at the Gwen Secter Creative Living Centre and funds to promote its services to women who are socially isolated
- A program centered on recovery and self-help at the Manitoba Schizophrenia Society
- Furniture for Osborne House's three interim housing apartments, which provide women and their children with affordable, supported interim housing after they leave the shelter
- Funds to Survivor's Hope Crisis Centre to increase awareness of the issues of abuse affecting women, to educate women affected by violence, and to improve access to support services

YOUTH IN PHILANTHROPY GRANTS

Annually, the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba provides $3,000 to the students at Gray Academy for their Youth in Philanthropy program. The students research charities and make allocations of $2,500; $500 is used for administration. In 2011 the students distributed monies for:

- New beds for the residents at Addictions Recovery
- Funds to the Children's Wish Foundation of Canada for their charitable purposes
- Subsidizing registration fees at Kidsport Manitoba
- New chairs at Lighthouse Evangelistic Association
- Funds for the emergency youth shelter at MacDonald Youth Services
- Purchase of clothes for women and children at Osborne House
- Dinner for the residents at Ronald McDonald House
- Winnipeg Harvest to purchase food for children
- Vet bills and food for the Winnipeg Pet Rescue Shelter

During 2011, Gwen Secter Creative Living Centre received grants from the Foundation for women's outreach as well as cultural and social programs for immigrants. The Centre continues to make strides to build their endowment fund at the Foundation in order to provide a sustainable future for the organization. Pictured here is JFM Executive Member, Larry Vickar, with Marilyn Regiec, Executive Director of GSCLC.

The Gray Academy of Jewish Education receives funding from the Foundation for scholarships and capital purchases. This year, a grant from the Foundation provided monies to purchase new musical instruments to expand the Band component of the school's programming.

A donor-directed fund allows donors to annually direct the income from their fund to the charities of their choice. During 2011, Siloam Mission received over $11,000 from the Foundation at the direction of several generous donors. Pictured here is the Foundation's Director of Development & Marketing, David Greaves, with Leanne Peters, Judy Richichi, and Floyd Perras of Siloam Mission.

In 2011, the Foundation was pleased to assist 78 students in furthering their post-secondary education through scholarships. Pictured here are just some of the thankful recipients.

Donations to the Foundation

In general, funds at the Foundation are either Undesignated or Designated. Undesignated Funds give the Foundation flexibility to address current and evolving community priorities and fulfill annual scholarship and grant obligations. Designated Funds support organizations and causes as directed by the donors either permanently (directed in a will or fund agreement) or on an annual basis. All distributions are approved by the Board.

(Top right) In 2011, the Foundation was pleased to provide a substantial grant to the Sarah Sommer Chai Folk Ensemble for a wireless in-ear monitor system. The new system will benefit Chai with significant savings in rental costs, set-up times, as well as personalized monitor levels for each performer.

(Bottom) The Foundation provides an annual amount to the Gray Academy's "Youth in Philanthropy" program. This program teaches Grade 10 students about philanthropy and gives them an opportunity to identify needs in the community, to make informed decisions and distribute small grants using the money provided. Pictured here are members of the YIP program along with representatives of the supported organizations.

Endowment Book of Life Signers 1998-2011

The Endowment book of Life is a planned giving program that offers participants an opportunity to leave both a financial legacy and a historical legacy to the community. The following donors are participants in the program and their family story is enscribed in the Endowment Book of Life. To view the stories online, please visit the Foundation's website.

The Jewish National Fund receives almost $100,000 annually from the Foundation, due in large part to the direction given by donors in their wills. Estate gifts to the Foundation are a way to ensure that your charity will receive your annual donation in perpetuity. Pictured here is Foundation President, Steve Kroft, with Rob Berkowitz, Executive Director of the JNF.

The Foundation offers donors an opportunity to provide gifts for immediate granting to the charity of their choice. During 2011, the Lubavitch Centre was the recipient of such a gift as well as other donor-directed monies. Pictured here is JFM Executive Member, Larry Vickar, with Rabbi Yacov Simmonds of the Lubavitch.

Mission

The Jewish Foundation of Manitoba, in keeping with our Jewish heritage and values, encourages and facilitates the creation and growth of endowment funds to enable the community to realize its potential. The Foundation maintains effective stewardship over all assets entrusted to it; distributes grants that reflect donors' wishes and community priorities; and provides leadership in the Jewish and general communities.
