SCHOLARSHIP GUIDELINES

RUTH & JOE FREED AND STEPHEN FREED ACADEMIC AWARDS

Deadline – February 28*

Awarded to Jewish students who have excelled academically in university or college studies, and who have demonstrated a commitment to the Jewish community. These awards are based on academic achievement and community involvement with no financial need component.

To be eligible for an Academic Excellence award, an applicant:

- Must be Jewish
- Must have completed or are completing a year of university/college within the current calendar year
- Must NOT have previously received a “Ruth & Joe Freed Academic Excellence Award”
- Must NOT have received an Education Award from the Jewish Foundation during the current calendar year

Assuming the applicant meets the eligibility requirements set forth above, the following criteria will be used by the selection committee in recommending an award:

- Consistent excellence in academic achievement
- Demonstrated commitment to the Jewish community
- Volunteer Work in the Jewish community
- Volunteer Work in the local community

 The DEADLINE for this award is February 28, however the applications will not be considered until final marks for the current academic year have been received.
