

Steven J. Kroft

JEWISH FOUNDATION OF MANITOBA WELCOMES ITS 15TH PRESIDENT!

The Jewish Foundation of Manitoba is pleased to welcome Steve Kroft as its new President. Steve has been a JFM board member since 2001 and joined the executive in 2003. He was elected the new Chair on June 14th 2011 at the Foundation's AGM. Steve recently commented, "As the capital base of the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba moves closer to the $100 million level, our capacity to make positive changes in peoples' lives will only increase. I look forward to continuing to work with our fund-holders, fund recipients and other organizations to ensure that we can meet the growing and ever-changing needs of Winnipeg's Jewish community as well as the broader community. By working together and continuing to build the Foundation, we will succeed in taking our community, our City and our Province to new heights."

Steve is the President & CEO of the Conviron Group of Companies. He is active on the boards of several professional and not-for-profit organizations.
