JEWISH FOUNDATION OF MANITOBA
2015 ANNUAL REPORT

AS A COMMUNITY, WE HAVE ALWAYS KNOWN

how to live for the present moment while planning for the next one. The earliest Jewish settlers of Winnipeg toiled to build homes, launch businesses, and raise their families. At the same time they built community institutions designed to attract newcomers, enrich Jewish life, and sustain a community for the long term.

Fast forward to the 1960s and the birth of the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba. The Foundation's 100+ founders looked back and knew they had inherited an important responsibility. They looked forward, and saw potential and opportunity. We live in the future they funded.

Today, your JFM continues to plan for our community's future. Guided by a new Strategic Plan, the Foundation aims to support a future characterized by meaningful community engagement, enriched by strong Jewish institutions, and enhanced by a tireless devotion to improving life in the Jewish and general communities.

Below, you will find a series of insights about the FUTURE shared by a cross-section of community members. They share words of optimism, caution, wisdom, and – above all – HOPE.

imagining POSSIBILITIES

THE FUTURE YOU FUND

"I wouldn't have decided to return if I didn't think there was something special in Winnipeg. We have a strong sense of community and a great team spirit. The key for a successful future is to harness that spirit to focus on Jewish learning through schools, synagogues, and other organizations. We face challenges, but we have great opportunities."

Rabbi Yosef BENARROCH, 57
Raised in Winnipeg; returning from Israel in July 2016 to lead Adas Yeshurun Herzlia Congregation

"We are a community that has wonderful problems. Our waitlist for childcare is so long that we are about to open a new facility – with a waitlist. Any child who wants a Jewish education will get a Jewish education, no matter the cost. It is incumbent on us to leverage volunteer and monetary contributions to ensure we meet the ongoing needs of our next generation."

Lindsay SAWYER, 37
Certified Financial Planner; one of the Rady JCC board Vice-Presidents; Harry Silverberg Young Leadership Award recipient

"Growing up in Riverview where there weren't a lot of Jews, I was made very aware that I was Jewish. I stood up for my identity and my people. We have a lot to be proud of as a community and I hope that we continue to contribute as we always have in music, drama, technology, and science."

Dr. Leonard KAHANE, 91
Retired dentist; sculptor; daily racquetball player

"I have always known that Winnipeg is a unique and special community. Our energy, our Yiddishkeit, and our down-to-earth nature make this a special place. To remain special and strong, we need to meet the community where they are at, promote volunteerism, and revive Jewish practice. Philanthropy is important, but we also need to be actively and meaningfully engaged."

Naomi PFEFFER, 36
*Teacher at Brock Corydon School;
 member of the JFM Scholarship Committee; Board member with Camp Massad and the Young Adult Division of the Jewish Federation of Winnipeg; moved back to Winnipeg in 2013 after 13 years away*

"Ours is a caring community. We are strong because we nurture a sense of belonging and a feeling of family. To retain our strength and warmth, I believe we need to enhance our tradition of sharing Jewish knowledge from generation to generation. Knowledge connects us and enriches us. The raw material is here. We need to shape it for the long term."

Evelyn KATZ, 85
*Former President,
 Winnipeg Jewish Community Council,
 Sharon Home, and Winnipeg Board of Jewish Education; long-time community demographer*

"I see great things for our community's future. We stand on the shoulders of giants when it comes to leadership, altruism, and hard work. Many committed community members today understand that the key is to act now; and so we are! In the words of Abraham Lincoln, 'You cannot escape the responsibility of tomorrow by evading it today'."

Rob DALGLIESH, 49
*Director of Teaching and Learning
 at Gray Academy of Jewish Education; parent of Gray Academy student;
 former Co-Chair of the Jewish Federation of Winnipeg's
 Ben-Gurion Society*

"I think our community's future is bright. By going to Gray Academy and by being active in BBYO, I've had a glimpse of what our future might be like. With our younger people's ideas, I don't see our community going stale as long as we have strong synagogues and organizations and the philanthropy to support them."

Elly COODIN, 17
*Gray Academy of Jewish Education
 Class of 2016; past Regional Aleph Gadol, BBYO*

"My vision is of a safe, secure, and involved Jewish Community. I'm concerned about the increase in anti-Semitic and anti-Israel activity we are seeing, and the rhetoric we are hearing in the world. It is my hope that we will have a specialized, organized, and financed effort to address this. I know the Foundation will play its part."

Gordon PULLAN, 90
Practising lawyer; former President of the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba and the Sharon Home

"The idea of community is the foundation of who we are as people. When I think of being Jewish I think of being part of a community. Our strength in Winnipeg has been how accessible we are – everyone can find a place. We can't take that for granted, though. To preserve what we have, we will have to become more creative."

Danita AZIZA, 54
*Author; President of JCFS;
 moved to Winnipeg in 2002,
 then moved to Israel, then returned to Winnipeg in 2012*

“The Talmud teaches us: ‘Who is wise? One who can see the future.’ Well, not being so wise, it is easier for me to look to the past for lessons for the next generations. And it seems to me building a robust community today and making our institutions stronger now is surely the formula for an enduring foreseeable future.”

David RICH, 72,
Owner of Richlu Manufacturing;
Co-Chair of Chabad-Lubavitch
of Winnipeg

“In the last three months, you could be busy with a Jewish event almost every night. We have a very vibrant community – but we have to work harder to retain people and attract newcomers. To succeed, we need to become more inclusive, we need to work with other communities, and we need to shout the virtues of our community and our city from the rooftops.”

Ruth Carol FELDMAN, 74
Real estate agent;
Chair of the Foundation's Endowment
Book of Life Committee

“Like many others, my grandparents came here in the early 1900s with nothing – and look at the community now. The multitude of cultural programming available has made my retirement richer. I can immerse myself in volunteer work, giving back to a community that gives so much to me. My hope is for future generations to do the same, keeping our grandparents' dreams alive.”

Laurel MALKIN, 60
Vice-President of the Jewish Federation of Winnipeg and the Women's Musical Club of Winnipeg;
Rady JCC member; Kosher
Meals-on-Wheels delivery driver

The year at a glance - 2015

Nearly 300 people gathered at the Asper Jewish Community Campus on June 15 to mark the end of the Foundation's 50th anniversary year, celebrate reaching $100 million in accumulated assets, and welcome new signers of the Endowment Book of Life.

A crowd of nearly 500 gathered at the Fairmont Winnipeg on October 29 for the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba's 40th Annual Luncheon. Rick Frost, the CEO of the Winnipeg Foundation, was the keynote speaker.

In 2015, JFM provided over $123,000 in Education Awards to 48 recipients. These awards help students achieve their educational goals. See page 14 for a list of this year's recipients.

In 2015, JFM provided $3,000 to Gray Academy of Jewish Education's Youth in Philanthropy program. See page 18 to learn how the students distributed their funds.

In October 2015, the JFM Board of Directors gathered at Lakeview Hecla Resort in Hecla Island, Manitoba, for an intensive strategic planning event.

In 2015, the Jewish Heritage Centre featured a beautiful exhibit celebrating 50 years of JFM history.

MESSAGE from the PRESIDENT and CEO

Looking ahead with strategy and purpose

It might seem odd to quote Yogi Berra in the JFM Annual Report, but the baseball legend had it right when he said: “If you don’t know where you are going, you’ll end up someplace else.”

That is precisely the spirit behind the Foundation’s ongoing strategic planning process. Successful organizations regularly examine their performance and set meaningful targets and goals. They anticipate challenges and adapt to address them. They roll up their sleeves, and they move purposefully to where they are going.

We set up a Strategic Planning Steering Committee in early 2015 and ran a Board retreat in the fall. Under the guidance of Strategic Philanthropy Inc., a leading Winnipeg-based consultancy, we studied best practice in foundation governance, community demographics, and trends in local Jewish philanthropy. We also examined our Strategic Plan from 2006 and reviewed our recent fund development performance. It was an exhaustive, detailed, and important exercise.

Our Board and staff have been keenly engaged as we considered recommendations to sharpen our approaches to governance (how we run the Foundation and organize ourselves) and fund development (how can we best grow the Foundation’s asset base to optimize our impact on community life).

The process has been ambitious, comprehensive, detailed, professional, and robust. And we are pleased to report that after extensive review and debate, we are now at an implementation phase.

So, what does all of this mean for the Foundation and for our community?

What it means is that we are putting ourselves in a position to operate even more efficiently and effectively for the long term. Our new governance structures will allow us to take better advantage of the expertise of our community’s leading volunteers.

It means we will implement approaches to raise more funds to meet future needs, and we will strategize around raising more unrestricted funds to allow us to be as nimble as possible. We will invest responsibly to grow appropriately.

Our community is changing. It always has, and it always will. As we raise more revenue, we are well-positioned to respond and innovate to ensure that our Jewish community remains strong while we continue to make an important contribution to the quality of life of all Manitobans.

We will meet the future proudly, effectively, and enthusiastically. We will meet the future strategically. We know where we are going.

Thank you for your ongoing generosity, interest, and community spirit.

Todah rabah.

MESSAGE from the CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Increasing momentum

“...the Foundation has distributed $55 million to the community in grants and scholarships – $31 million or 57% over the last decade.”

A stylized signature of Ian Barnes in dark ink.

Ian Barnes, CPA, CGA
Chief Financial Officer

We are delighted to present for the first time, a financial statement indicating the Foundation has surpassed $100 million in total assets. This milestone is attributed to the vision of the Jewish Foundation's pioneers, the leadership of the diligent volunteer Board and committee members over the years and, of course, the enthusiastic acceptance of the community. As Manitoba's second largest public foundation, we look upon this achievement with both pride and humility, committed to meeting the challenge of the community's needs into the future.

Growth for growth's sake is not the ultimate objective. The Foundation is gaining momentum. Growth is the vehicle that enables the Foundation to distribute increasing annual support to the community. Over the last decade, the Foundation's assets have doubled from $52 million to $104 million; notwithstanding losing 15% of its value during the 2008 market decline. Since 1964, aggregate contributions are $92.5 million; $42.5 million or one-third received since 2005. Since inception, the Foundation has distributed $55 million to the community in grants and scholarships – $31 million or 57% over the last decade. During 2015, JFM distributed $3.3+ million to 238 organizations. Therefore, the community is absolutely sharing in, and benefiting from the Foundation's increasing momentum.

During 2015, the Foundation's investment portfolio returned 8.62% vs. its benchmark return of 8.37%. The return after investment management fees was 8.52%. The U.S. equity market, buoyed by its favourable U.S. dollar position, continued its strong performance – returning 21.6%. However Canada remains a challenge with negative returns; particularly commodity prices in general and oil prices specifically. At the end of 2014, the Foundation reduced its equity allocation to Canada from 30% to 20%.

During 2015, JFM allocated surplus income to the endowments as additional contributed capital, further enhancing the growth of the asset base. This event will occur again in 2016 resulting in additional incremental distributions to the community over time.

Though we have taken a moment to reflect on its history, the Foundation is focused on the future. Effective leadership is a process of Kaizen or continuous improvement as we all strive to enhance our community. We profusely thank the Foundation's many constituents: its donors, its volunteers, its beneficiary organizations, and its other "friends" for your ongoing suggestions and advice. This is "your" Foundation; continued support is crucial as the Foundation continues along its path of Kaizen, resulting in a better tomorrow for everyone.

Berdie & Irvin Cohen (BERVIN) ORGANIZATIONAL ENDOWMENT INCENTIVE FUND

Generating more annual income for Jewish organizations that are meeting the community's educational, cultural, spiritual, and social service needs.

What is it?

- BERVIN is an initiative to provide an incentive to Jewish organizations to grow their endowment funds
- BERVIN is funded by the Berdie & Irvin Cohen (BERVIN) Organizational Endowment Incentive Fund, which donated $1 million to this initiative
- The $1 million endowment, honouring the memory of Berdie and Irvin Cohen, provides an opportunity for Jewish organizations in the province to build their endowments to enhance their financial security over the long term

How does it work?

- When a participating Winnipeg Jewish organization adds $720,000 dollars to its new or existing organizational endowment fund, it triggers a $108,000 incentive contribution from the BERVIN Incentive Fund
- Once an organization reaches the $1 million mark in new money, they earn the right to withdraw from their endowment fund in the event of a rainy day or special project – this withdrawal cannot exceed 50% of the original $1 million

What are the guidelines?

- Organizational endowments that qualify for BERVIN must declare at the time of contributing their gift(s) that at least 50% will be allocated to permanent endowment
- The organization can grow its fund by accumulating gifts from multiple donors

How does an organization qualify?

- You must be a Jewish organization resident in Manitoba
- Your organization's primary purpose must be of benefit to Manitoba's Jewish community, the State of Israel, and must be in keeping with the JFM's mission

BERVIN Participating Organizations

Jewish National Fund

FundMatch on the Grow

Helping grow organizational endowment funds through the visionary leadership of our donors.

FundMatch is an initiative designed to entice organizations to grow their endowment funds according to their capacity. When certain benchmarks are reached, the FundMatch initiative provides an additional contribution to the organizational endowment fund, which generates even more income for that organization.

The JFM is grateful to our donors who have provided the matching money for FundMatch. This initiative would not be possible without them.

ENDOWMENT FUND BALANCES at December 31, 2015

Our endowment fund listings are organized in two broad categories: (1) Organizational Endowment and Special Interest Funds; and (2) Individual and Family Funds. All distributions from these funds are approved by the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba Board of Directors.

Organizational Endowment and Special Interest Funds

Organizational Endowment Funds are an important cornerstone of our success as a foundation and as a community. By launching and growing their own endowment funds, our institutions ensure an annual flow of income – in perpetuity. Our Special Interest Funds allow donors to come together to support programs and services more broadly (like Jewish camping, special needs, or women's causes, for example).

INDIVIDUAL and FAMILY FUNDS (Designated and Undesignated)

Endowment funds at the Foundation are either Undesignated or Designated. Undesignated funds give the Foundation flexibility to address current and emerging community priorities and fulfill annual scholarship and grant obligations. Designated funds support organizations and causes as recommended by the donors either permanently (through a will or fund agreement) or on an annual basis.
