New funds promise a bright future

To remember a loved one. To perpetuate ideas and ideals that mattered to someone special. To celebrate a milestone. To strengthen an important organization. Or simply because you feel like making a difference.

There are many reasons to open an endowment fund at the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba. No matter your motivation, new funds position the community for a brighter future.

In 2016, more than 65 new funds were opened at the Foundation by organizations and individuals who embrace the Foundation's commitment to community well-being for the long term.

We are pleased to introduce you to a few of the people and organizations who were inspired to open new endowment funds in 2016.

To learn how to open a new fund, call Rob Berkowits, Director of Development & Gift Planning, at 204.477.7522 or toll-free in Canada and the U.S. at 1.855.284.1918, or send an email to rberkowits@ jewishfoundation.org.

Women's Endowment Fund in 2016.

Dianne Popeski opened a fund under the luncheon last year and took the opportunity to learn about the Fund. I was inspired by how the Fund empowers women and has an impact on their leadership in our community. Around the same time, I was planning a trip to Israel for my daughter and > me to connect more deeply with the Jewish community and with our Jewish heritage. I believe that, together, philanthropic contributions and active involvement set a good example for my kids to support the Jewish community."

Myron Klysh and his wife opened the Myron & Marion Klysh Fund in 2016. Income earned by the fund will support the Asper Jewish Community Campus.

"The Campus was a long-time accounting client of mine and I had a front-row seat to how well this organization is run. I feel very confident in supporting them because I know they use their resources wisely. I'm not Jewish, but I see the Campus as an important asset for Winnipeggers of all backgrounds. Supporting the Campus through the Jewish Foundation was an easy decision to make. I used to be the Foundation's auditor and here, too, I observed a high-quality organization run by remarkable people. I also like the permanence of an endowed gift."

The Rady JCC

The Rady JCC opened the Sid Slonim Endowment Fund in 2016. Income earned by the fund will subsidize membership fees for an individual or family in need. Sid Slonim passed away in 2014 at the age of 90.

"Sid Slonim lived for the ICC. He was active at the old YMHA and the Rady Centre was his second home. He took the initiative to start a fitness class for seniors - one that has received national attention - and which we still call "Sid's Group". When Sid passed away, he left a bequest to the Rady JCC. After consultation with Sid's family, we decided to endow the gift so that it would help people in perpetuity. We were also able to take advantage of the Jewish Foundation's FundMatch program that will help Sid's generosity go even further. Sid was a mensch who exemplified everything that the JCC stands for – fitness, community, and Jewish living. We miss him."

Bonnie Cham and Lorne Bellan

In 2016, Shirley Cham established the Bonnie Cham & Lorne Bellan Family Fund as a gift for her daughter and son-in-law's 35th anniversary.

Lorne Bellan and Bonnie Cham

"We first learned about the Foundation around our oldest son's Bar Mitzvah. We loved the idea and each of our kids opened a Bar Mitzvah Fund, and I opened a Women's Endowment Fund. When my mother offered to celebrate our anniversary by opening a fund in our names, we were thrilled. She had set up a fund in my father's memory a few years ago (the Dr. Max and Shirley Cham Fund) with the proceeds funding an award at the University of Manitoba's medical school. So, there is a fund in my parents' names, funds in our kids' names, and now a fund in our own names. We are forever linked through the generations at the Jewish Foundation."

Dr. Bonnie Cham

Penny and Sheldon Bowles

Carrie Shenkarow

Carrie Shenkarow opened the Sheldon & Penny Bowles Fund under the BB Camp Organizational Endowment Fund in 2016.

"Sheldon and Penny Bowles are amazing people and they have been family friends for a long time. They have contributed to my BB Camp fund at the Foundation – sometimes to celebrate a special occasion, and sometimes just because. They know how important BB is to me and to the community. When it came time to honour their special anniversary last year, I knew opening a BB fund in their names would be something they'd appreciate. Opening a new fund is a great way to honour someone special and support an organization you care about."

Carrie Shenkarow

David Solomon

David Solomon opened the Jadon Manning Bar Mitzvah Fund in 2016.

"Jadon's fund is the fifth Bar/Bat Mitzvah Fund I have opened at the Foundation – one for each of my great nieces and nephews. I've opened these funds as an act of love, but also to teach them about the importance of tzedakah. I figure it's a cool, life-long lesson to come from a great uncle. I care for them deeply and by giving tzedakah like this, I feel like I am giving them the gift of an enduring name and a connection to the community."

David Solomon

Arthur Blankstein-Ure

Marjorie Blankstein opened the Arthur Blankstein-Ure Fund under the Jewish Federation of Winnipeg's Leave More Than Memories Fund in 2016.

"When my nephew passed away last year, I knew that the best way to honour his memory was to do something that would benefit the community for the long term. Arthur cared deeply about the community. He was active with Federation, the Simkin Centre, and other organizations, and he served as the Co-Chair of the Winnipeg conference of the World Congress of GLBT Jews in 2013. Arthur always aimed to make our community stronger and more inclusive. He was a talented interior designer and an outspoken leader."

Gray Academy of Jewish Education

Gray Academy of Jewish Education created the Carol Leszcz Learning & Giving Award in 2016. The award is funded by income earned by the Gray Academy Organizational Endowment Fund.

"The award is presented to a Gray Academy graduate who has attended the school since junior kindergarten – someone committed to Jewish education, passionate about working with children, and who leads life with menschlachkeit and creativity. In other words – someone just like Ha'morah Carol. Carol Leszcz was a dynamo as a JK teacher and a beloved colleague. Her passing in 2012 was a devastating loss for the community. It is our hope that this award through the Foundation not only honours Carol's memory, but also inspires generations of excellence in Jewish education."

Choo Choo Rosenbloom

In 2016, Choo Choo Rosenbloom opened the Earl & Choo Choo Rosenbloom Fund under the Jewish Child and Family Service Organizational Endowment Fund.

"In the last year of my husband's life, he was very ill and living at home. I injured my arm and couldn't care for him the way I wanted to. We called Jewish Child and Family Service and they sent a couple of volunteers who did our grocery shopping and other errands. They have become my very good friends! So, I guess my Foundation fund is a way to say thank you to JCFS, but also to help them continue with the good work that they do.

I'm also looking forward to sharing Earl's story in the Endowment Book of Life."

The Saul and Claribel Simkin Centre

In 2016, The Saul and Claribel Simkin Centre moved its Sara Hochman Music Therapy Endowment Fund to the Centre's organizational endowment fund at the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba.

"Sara Hochman is a legend at the Simkin Centre. As a community volunteer, for over 50 years, she joyfully played piano for the residents here at the Centre and at the Sharon Home on Magnus Ave. Today, she is in her mid-90s and still plays piano for our residents from time to time. At the Foundation, the fund will continue to support music programming and music therapy initiatives at the Centre. The evidence is becoming increasingly clear that music is a powerful way to enrich the lives of people living with dementia. Music enhances the well-being of our residents – just like Sara always has."

Irwin Corobow, Chief Executive Officer
Saul and Claribel Simkin Centre

Bob Silver

Bob Silver opened the Bob Silver Family Fund in 2016.

"I've been aware of the Jewish Foundation for a long time and decided to act in 2016. The case for supporting the Foundation is a compelling one. I care deeply about our community and I see the Foundation as an important vehicle for meeting our future needs. I decided to leave my fund undesignated, which means the Foundation can allocate the income my fund earns to where it's needed most from year to year. I'm proud to support our community; I see it as my responsibility. And giving was part of my upbringing."

WOMEN'S ENDOWMENT FUND LUNCHEON

Nearly 500 people gathered at the RBC Convention Centre Winnipeg in May for one of the most successful JFM Women's Endowment Fund (WEF) luncheons in history. Lt. Governor Janice Filmon was the keynote speaker at the luncheon – an inspiring address rich with emotion, humour, and stories. Learn more about the Women's Endowment Fund on page 39.

ENDOWMENT BOOK OF LIFE

In September, more than 200 people gathered for a night full of warmth, celebration, and a special performance by Rainbow Stage at Congregation Shaarey Zedek for the 18th annual Endowment Book of Life Donor Recognition Evening. YOUTH IN PHILANTHROPY

In June, the JFM provided $2,500 to Gray Academy of Jewish Education's Youth in Philanthropy program.

Through the Gemilut Chasadim course, Grade 10 students learned about various charities in Winnipeg and supported eight organizations with these funds. See page 25 to learn how the students distributed their funds.

2016 SCHOLARSHIP EVENT

In June, the JFM distributed over $135,000 in education awards to 61 recipients at a reception held in the Berney Theatre at the Asper Jewish Community Campus. These awards help students achieve their educational goals. See page 20 for a list of 2016's recipients.

THE YEAR AT A GLANCE

THERE'S NO SUCH THING AS A FORMER WINNIPEGGER

In October, over 65 people gathered in Toronto for brunch to celebrate their Winnipeg roots. The event featured Winnipeg treats including a Jeanne's Cake, a Winnipeg souvenir bag, plenty of reminiscing, and a presentation that stirred up nostalgic feelings and shared exciting information about the state of the community and the city today.

MESSAGE FROM THE CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Ian Barnes, CPA, CGA

"He was grateful to the JFM for putting the pieces together. We were grateful to have the opportunity."

A donor phoned our office a few months ago to tell us about a letter he had received. The note came from a young woman in the inner city who had been the beneficiary of a Jewish Foundation of Manitoba bursary that came from the donor's endowment fund. The young woman thanked the donor for giving her the opportunity to earn her degree from the University of Manitoba's Inner City Social Work Program.

The woman reported that she planned to stay in the inner city upon graduation to help people in her community. "You have played an important role in helping me achieve my goals," she wrote to our donor.

The donor was very excited and very touched. He called to tell us how wonderful it felt to help this young woman shine. He was grateful to the JFM for putting the pieces together. We were grateful to have the opportunity.

This is the true joy of working as a volunteer or as a staff person at the JFM – knowing that what we do as an organization and what you do as donors has such a profound impact. The evidence is all around us. A letter from a grateful graduate. The sounds of Russian, Spanish, and Hebrew at community programs. A former recipient of community support giving back with dollars and with volunteer hours. New technology at a school. New books in a library. New beds in a shelter. A summer at camp. A ride for a senior.

What you do as donors and fundholders elevates the practice of tikkun olam, the Jewish imperative to repair the world. You change lives. You make the community a better place.

As our asset base grows at the Foundation, we recognize the growing responsibility we have to contribute to the long-term development and well-being of our Jewish community and the community beyond. We are nearing $4 million in annual distributions, and assuming good market performance and your continued support, that amount will continue to grow as our community's needs change over time.

What a gift our founders gave to us over 50 years ago! These visionaries knew that our Jewish community had the heart, soul, and drive to support important programs, to invest in vital infrastructure, and to make life better for those among us who need a helping hand. They knew the Foundation and its impact would grow as the community changed.

And that's how we feel today.

Thank you for your continued support and engagement. Thank you for making a difference today, and thank you for helping to shape the future.

"As we have always said, growth for growth's sake is not the Foundation's ultimate objective."

Last year, we reported that the Foundation surpassed the $100 million milestone in total assets. This year we are pleased to report that the asset base has increased to $108 million. As we have always said, growth for growth's sake is not the Foundation's ultimate objective. Growth translates into an empowered community poised to address priorities. Growth translates into impact.

During 2016, the Foundation distributed almost $3.6 million to 225 organizations and scholarship recipients. Since inception, the Foundation has distributed $58.4 million. The JFM's impact is widespread and long-term. From camperships to seniors' transportation, from organizational endowment-building through our FundMatch and Bervin initiatives, to targeted grants and scholarships, the Foundation touches people from all walks of life.

We attribute this success to our donors, dedicated committee volunteers and staff, and recipient organizations who embrace the Foundation's long-term vision. In 2016, the Foundation received $4.2 million in new gifts. Some of this generosity was expressed through ongoing, lifetime giving; and some was expressed through realized bequests - planned gifts from people who left a powerful legacy to the community.

The community benefits incrementally from every dollar gifted to the Foundation – in perpetuity. Regardless of the type of gift you want to make or the type of fund you would like to open and nurture, the Foundation will walk with you on your philanthropic journey. We can help you achieve your charitable objectives.

During 2016, the Foundation's investment portfolio returned 6.04% vs. its benchmark return of 6.26%. The return after investment management fees was 5.94%. The return was buoyed by strong Canadian equity performance of 21.04%, and continued strong U.S. equity performance. However, a large sell-off of fixed income in the fourth quarter resulted in negative returns in the -3.5% range. At the end of 2016 there were signs of a recovery in emerging markets after years of weak growth.

During 2016, the contributed capital of the endowment funds increased by $6.1 million to $98.6 million. This includes $4.2 million in new gifts and $1.8 million in recapitalization – an allocation resulting from strong financial performance in 2015. This translates to an additional $245,000 (approximately) available for distribution to the community. The more we grow our capital, the more impact we will have for today and for the long term.

We also increased the Reserve Fund to $7.4 million – an appropriate level to fund two years of distribution in the event the markets take a downturn. The $653,000 increase in the Reserve Fund was sourced primarily from our net income for the year of $984,000.

The Foundation's investment returns and detailed financial statements are available on our website (www.jewishfoundation.org).

As always, the Foundation remains focused on tomorrow. We continue to invest appropriately in our infrastructure, technology, donor development, and research. Such investment will return an even greater financial distribution to the community and greater responsiveness to our constituents. Forever...

THE BERVIN EFFECT

Community Organizations Benefit from Powerful Incentive Fund

The Berdie & Irvin Cohen (BERVIN) Incentive Fund was established in 2014 to provide an incentive to Jewish organizations to grow their endowment funds or establish their first one. The fund is another way the memory of Berdie and Irvin Cohen – a couple remembered for their values, work ethic, upstanding character, and good parenting – is honoured by their son.

In the past, some organizations have been nervous about establishing endowment funds because they understood that they could never access the contributed capital. BERVIN Incentive Fund addresses that concern, provides a financial incentive, and offers a higher rate of return than a typical GIC.

How does it work?

- When a participating Winnipeg Jewish organization adds $720,000 dollars to its new or existing organizational endowment fund, it triggers a $108,000 incentive contribution from the BERVIN Incentive Fund.
- Once an organization reaches the $1 million mark in new money, they earn the right to withdraw from their endowment fund in the event of a rainy day or special project this withdrawal cannot exceed 50% of the original $1 million.

What are the guidelines?

- Organizational endowments that qualify for BERVIN must declare at the time of contributing their gift(s) that at least 50% will be allocated to permanent endowment.
- The organization can grow its fund by accumulating gifts from multiple donors.

How does an organization qualify?

- You must be a Jewish organization residing in Manitoba.
- Your organization's primary purpose must be of benefit to Manitoba's Jewish community, the State of Israel, and must be in keeping with the JFM's mission.

FUNDMATCH

FundMatch is an initiative designed to entice organizations to grow their endowment funds according to their capacity. When certain benchmarks are reached, the FundMatch initiative provides an additional contribution to the organizational endowment fund, which generates even more income for that organization.

JFM is grateful to our donors who have provided the matching money for FundMatch. This initiative would not be possible without them.

2016 FINANCIAL STATEMEN

Report of the Independent Auditor on the Summary Financial Statements

May 16, 2017

To the Board of Directors of The Jewish Foundation of Manitoba

The accompanying summary financial statements, which comprise the summary statement of financial position as at December 31, 2016 and the summary statement of operations for the year then ended are derived from the audited financial statements of The Jewish Foundation of Manitoba for the year ended December 31, 2016. We expressed an unmodified audit opinion on those financial statements in our report dated May 16, 2017.

The summary financial statements do not contain all the disclosures required by Canadian accounting standards for not for profit organizations. Reading the summary financial statements, therefore, is not a substitute for reading the audited financial statements of The Jewish Foundation of Manitoba.

Management's Responsibility for the Summary Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation of a summary of the audited financial statements in accordance with the following criteria:

- a) the information in the summary financial statements is in agreement with the related information in the complete audited
- b) the summary financial statements contain the information necessary to avoid distorting or obscuring matters disclosed in the related complete audited financial statements, including the notes thereto; and
- c) the statements of changes in net assets and cash flows, and the notes to the complete audited financial statements have not been carried forward to these summary financial statements.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the summary financial statements based on our procedures, which were conducted in accordance with Canadian Auditing Standard (CAS) 810, "Engagements to Report on Summary Financial Statements."

Opinion

In our opinion, the summary financial statements derived from the audited financial statements of The Jewish Foundation of Manitoba for the year ended December 31, 2016 are a fair summary of those financial statements, in accordance with the criteria noted above.

Seniors' Transportation Initiative

The Jewish Foundation of Manitoba provides a minimum of $50,000 annually to Jewish agencies providing safe and dignified transportation for our community's seniors. The Seniors' Transportation Initiative was conceived and is substantially funded by the Daniel Tallman Family Fund with the participation of other JFM donors. In 2016, the following organizations received grants:

- Gwen Secter Creative Living Centre at Syd Glow Place
- Jewish Child and Family Service
- Rady Jewish Community Centre

Special Grants

Special grants are offered to individuals for creative initiatives that address needs not currently being met in Winnipeg's Jewish community, or that address social and community awareness issues in creative formats.

The following special grants were awarded in 2016 to:

- Randy Guest ($1,850) | to record the stories of Holocaust survivors for circulation on social media in order to reach young audiences.
- Jamie Michaels ($10,000) | to produce a historical graphic novel about Toronto's Christie Pits riots, the social conditions that preceded them, and the lessons that can be drawn by contemporary readers.
- Yolanda Papini-Pollock ($5,000) | to produce Never Again: A Genocide Story, a single episode of a 13-episode series featuring a Holocaust survivor

Women's Endowment Fund Grants

The Women's Endowment Fund encourages women to fulfill their philanthropic potential, and raises funds in support of Manitoba women. In 2016, Women's Endowment Fund grants supported:

- Alpha House ($5,000) | to replace beds, cribs, couches, and tables in apartments housing women and their children leaving abusive relationships
- Canadian Red Cross Society, Manitoba Region ($2,500) | to support families who were affected by the fires in Fort McMurray.
- Gwen Secter Creative Living Centre ($5,900) | to support "Babas and Babes" an intergenerational bi-weekly program bringing babas/grandmas together with young mothers and their babies.
- Jewish Child and Family Service ($8,000) | to fund the second phase of a support group for Jewish women living with addiction.
- Joy Smith Foundation ($6,000) | to develop and share educational materials to teach students, parents, and teachers about human trafficking.
- Marymound Inc. ($5,000) | to support the development of a 24/7 residential treatment centre that provides crisis stabilization, clinical assessment, intervention and transition services through a multi-disciplinary team approach for female youth aged 12 to 17.
- Rady Jewish Community Centre ($2,800) | to fund programming that provides an outlet for newcomer "new moms" to come together and receive support through a variety of program experiences at the centre.
- Sarasvati Dramatic Theatre Productions and Repertory ($2,500) | to fund "New Beginnings", a community based theatre initiative that pairs artists with newcomer women in Winnipeg.
- Siloam Mission ($6,000) | to add 36 beds to a private area for women in Hannah's Place Emergency Shelter.
- Women's Health Clinic ($4,530) | to support the redevelopment of an existing evidence-based sexual and reproductive health education program to meet the needs of Main Street Project staff and clients.

Youth In Philanthropy Grants

Annually, the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba provides $3,000 to the students of Gray Academy for their Youth In Philanthropy program. The students research charities and make allocations based on their findings. In 2016 the students contributed to:

ENDOWMENT FUND BALANCES at December 31, 2016

Our endowment fund listings are organized in two broad categories: (1) Organizational Endowment and Special Interest Funds; and (2) Individual and Family Funds. All distributions from these funds are approved by the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba Board of Directors.

Organizational Endowment and Special Interest Funds

Organizational Endowment Funds are an important cornerstone of our success as a foundation and as a community. By launching and growing their own endowment funds, our institutions ensure an annual flow of income – in perpetuity. Our Special Interest Funds allow donors to come together to support programs and services more broadly (like Jewish camping, special needs, or women's causes, for example).

-WOMEN'S-ENDOWMENT FUND

SUPPORTING ALL MANITOBA WOMEN.

Miscellaneous Donations

INDIVIDUAL and FAMILY FUNDS

(Designated and Undesignated)

Endowment funds at the Foundation are either Undesignated or Designated. Undesignated funds give the Foundation flexibility to address current and emerging community priorities and fulfill annual scholarship and grant obligations. Designated funds support organizations and causes as recommended by the donors either permanently (through a will or fund agreement) or on an annual basis.

"I figure it's a cool, life-long lesson to come from a great uncle."

"We are forever linked through the generations at the Jewish Foundation."

"It is our hope that this award inspires generations of excellence in Jewish education."

"I guess my Foundation fund is a way to say thank you to JCFS, but also to help them continue with the good work that they do."

"I'm not Jewish, but I see the Campus as an important asset for Winnipeggers of all backgrounds."

"... I knew that the best way to honour his memory was to do something that would benefit the community..."

"I decided to leave my fund undesignated..."

"I believe that, together, philanthropic contributions and active involvement set a good example for my kids to support the Jewish community."

"Sid was a mensch who exemplified everything that the JCC stands for..."

OUR MISSION

The Jewish Foundation of Manitoba, in keeping with our Jewish heritage and values, encourages and facilitates the creation and growth of endowment funds to enable the community to realize its potential. The Foundation maintains effective stewardship over all assets entrusted to it; distributes grants that reflect donors' wishes and community priorities; and provides leadership in the Jewish and general communities.
