JFM enhances life in the Jewish community and beyond

In 2017, the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba awarded $1.4 million in grants to support important initiatives of Jewish organizations and organizations that serve Manitobans of all backgrounds. Here are just a few grant highlights from 2017.

To see a full list of all grants awarded in 2017, turn to page 24.

BBG Week

Empowering Teen Girls in the Community

It was a busy week. It was an exciting week. Above all, it was an empowering week.

For five days in May, BBG – the girls’ division of B’nai Brith Youth Organization (BBYO) – shone a light on community service, well-being, and Jewish identity. BBG Week was funded in large part by a $5,000 Women’s Endowment Fund grant from the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba. “The JFM has helped us achieve our goals for promoting teen leadership,” says Gayle Waxman, Executive Director of the Rady JCC, which oversees BBYO in Winnipeg. “BBG Week helped the girls see themselves in the context of our larger community. You can’t put a pricetag on that.”

During BBG Week, the girls had a different program focus each day, including: mental health promotion; community service (with the girls making lunches for Main Street Project and writing letters to lone soldiers in Israel); and physical fitness. The signature event of the week was the Shabbat dinner where each girl was encouraged to bring a woman who has been a source of empowerment and guidance.

“I brought my voice teacher and my sister brought our Mom,” says BBG Regional Board member Hannah Levit. “We sang, did Shabbat rituals, our whole Board spoke about empowerment, and we had a guest speaker about mental health. The grant from the Jewish Foundation was really important to us.”

Diabetes Canada

Informative. Intimate. Invaluable.

There has long been a programming gap in Manitoba for people with type 1 diabetes who are aging out of pediatric care and youth diabetes programs. Thanks in part to a $4,500 Community Grant from the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba, Diabetes Canada is closing the gap with a pilot project called Type One Networking and Education of Diabetes Program, or T-ONE-D for short.

Launched in March 2017, the program brings young adults together every second month for a two-and-a-half-hour meeting. Participants range in age from 17 to 30.

“The first hour is about health promotion and diabetes education,” says Carly Kowalchuk, Community Engagement Coordinator with Diabetes Canada. “The rest of the evening is about networking and open discussion. People really value the program, especially those people who were diagnosed with type 1 in their 20s.”

As members of the group have grown closer together, the environment has allowed for conversation about more personal and intimate issues like alcohol consumption, sex, and how to navigate university exams while managing diabetes.

“We’ve heard from participants that the most amazing part of this is knowing they aren’t alone,” adds Kowalchuk, who was diagnosed with type 1 diabetes at 20. “Sometimes we have trouble getting the group to end. We’ve been kicked out of venues.

“We’re grateful for the Jewish Foundation’s support,” she adds. “This program is making a difference in people’s lives and we hope to sustain it.”

Sage House

Restoring a Vital Service

Sage House – a cornerstone program of Mount Carmel Clinic – closed its doors in 2016, leaving the clinic with the challenge of continuing to serve women involved in the survival sex trade. Located at 422 Dufferin Ave., Sage House had fallen into disrepair. It was no longer a safe facility.

The Mount Carmel Clinic Foundation successfully raised the funds it needed to renovate the drop-in facility, including a $7,500 grant from the Women’s Endowment Fund at the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba. Sage House re-opened in July 2017.

“We see up to 70 women a day who work in the sex trade to survive,” says Rebecca Blaikie, Senior Manager, Social Services, at Mount Carmel Clinic. “They come here to do laundry, take a shower, or have a nap. We offer free hot meals twice a week, a nurse practitioner, counselling, peer support groups, and more.”

Blaikie and her colleagues are well aware of the Jewish community’s historical connection to Mount Carmel Clinic and are grateful that the Foundation is keeping that connection alive.

“The support sends an important message to the women we serve,” says Blaikie. “It lets them know that people are thinking about them and care about them.”

Without the Foundation grant, adds Blaikie, the funds would have had to be found elsewhere, possibly taken from a program budget. “We’re all stronger when we lift each other up,” she says.

United Way Winnipeg

Greater than the Sum of its Parts

Where can families turn when they need some extra support? In Winnipeg, about 35,000 people find comfort, community, and practical help through 24 Family Resource Centres (FRCs) spread across the city.

The centres are all independent non-profits that give families a boost with programs related to early childhood education, health, literacy, counselling, job-hunting, and much more.

In 2015, United Way Winnipeg took a closer look at the centres and identified a huge opportunity to enhance their impact on the families they serve.

“We learned that the FRCs were able to do a lot with a minimum of resources,” says Kathy Knudsen, Vice President, Community Impact, “and we saw an opportunity that with further funding support, the centres could become even more effective and impactful in helping to support and strengthen families.”

And so, United Way Winnipeg embarked on a five-year, $7.5 million campaign for its “For Every Family” initiative. The provincial government agreed to match all funds raised up to $1.5 million a year. The Jewish Foundation of Manitoba stepped forward with a five-year $125,000 grant.

The funds will allow smaller centres to expand their hours, promote networking and mentoring among FRCs, and create opportunities to enhance services. In the first year alone, the For Every Family initiative was able to add 20,000 hours of service. (Some centres were only open six hours a week!)

“The Jewish Foundation’s grant is incredibly generous and we are grateful. It will help make the centres stronger together,” says Knudsen. “The grant speaks to the Foundation’s commitment to building a better community for everyone.”

Alon Weinberg

Clicking with Community

From playful to pensive, Alon Weinberg promises that his new Winnipeg Jewish podcast will engage listeners in a variety of ways.

“My goal is to tell stories about Jewish life in Manitoba and give voice to a broad range of perspectives,” says Weinberg. “We have a rich fabric of Jewish life in Winnipeg and I want to celebrate that. We will talk about some hard issues, and we will have some fun.”

The podcast – called The Wondering Jew: Musings and Tales from Red River – will be available for free download on iTunes and other podcast distribution sites in the fall. The podcast was made possible by a $6,500 Special Grant from the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba. Among other things, the grant allowed Weinberg to take a course at Red River College to enhance his skills.

“I’m grateful that the Foundation encourages experimentation and cultural production through these grants,” says Weinberg, a CKUW radio host.

So far, Weinberg has mapped out 25 episodes. He plans to invite summer camp alumni to reminisce; explore the history of the Hebrew Congregation of Winnipeg Beach; invite guests to talk about Jewish food; and talk to Jewish artists. On the heavier side, he will look at Judaism and atheism; have rabbis on the show to discuss questions of Jewish law and theology; look at gender issues in Jewish life, and much more.

“The goal is to make this interesting, creative, and exciting – and to stimulate dialogue,” he says.

Brock Corydon School

Hebrew Bilingual Program: Seeing the Stars

When the festival of Sukkot comes around in the fall, Brock Corydon School typically takes its Hebrew Bilingual Program students to visit sukkahs at various houses in the neighbourhood as well as the sukkahs at Congregation Shaarey Zedek and Adas Yeshurun Herzlia.

Thanks to a $3,998 grant from the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba, Brock Corydon will be able to have its own sukkah starting in the fall of 2018.

“We do a lot of cross-cultural sharing and learning at our school,” says Principal Ara Morris. “With our own sukkah, we will be able to share the holiday with students in our English program and invite kids from other schools, too.”

A sukkah is a booth built on the holiday to remind us of the temporary dwellings the Israelites built in the Sinai Desert on their trek from slavery in Egypt to freedom in the land of Israel. The roof is usually made of branches so that the stars can be seen at night. It is customary to eat in the sukkah and even sleep in it, and to decorate it with the symbols of the holiday.

“We’ve been planning to build this for a while, but the grant from the Foundation is letting us do it right away, and we are grateful,” says Morris. “With our own sukkah, we will be able to expand what we do on the holiday and inspire the students to really take ownership of it.”

PJ Library

“I want to open it now, now, now!”

Three-year-old Immanuel Chimanovitch can barely contain his enthusiasm when his monthly PJ Library envelope arrives. In it, a free, age-appropriate book about Jewish culture, heritage, and values.

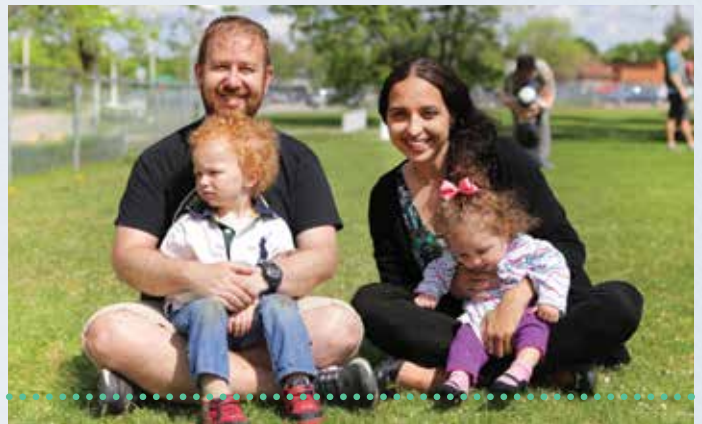

“He can’t even read yet, but he loves the books,” says mom, Amanda Chimanovitch. “He sees the mail and says, ‘I want to open it now, now, now!’”

Immanuel is one of 840 Jewish children in Winnipeg between the ages of six months and eight years who receive free Jewish books. Half of the costs are covered by the Harold Grinspoon Foundation, which launched the international program in 2005. The other half is covered by the Jewish Federation of Winnipeg. In 2017, a $10,000 Jewish Foundation of Manitoba Community Grant to the Federation helped to subsidize the program.

“The grant allows us to keep up with sending the books to as many families as possible,” says Florencia Katz, the Federation’s PJ Library Coordinator. “We know how important this program is for families. It promotes Jewish conversations and ignites Jewish thinking.”

In Winnipeg, the PJ Library program includes special events for subscribing families. For Amanda Chimanovitch, a newcomer to Winnipeg from Brazil, PJ Library offers a special connection to the community and to Jewish knowledge.

“I am happy because he is getting Jewish education,” she says of Immanuel, who also goes to programs at Chabad. “He knows everything about the holidays. He might be a future rabbi!”

Saul & Claribel Simkin Centre

For the Safety of Residents

According to Government of Canada research, up to 30% of Canadian seniors experience at least one fall a year. While trying to reduce the number of falls is important, it is also critical to take steps to decrease the risk of injury when falls do happen.

With a $6,440 Community Grant from the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba, the Saul and Claribel Simkin Centre recently purchased 50 Risk Manager Bedside Safety Mats. These are high-end mats designed to cushion the falls of residents getting in and out of bed. All 50 mats have been in use since they were purchased and the Centre plans to buy more.

“We have residents who might forget that they have mobility issues and this affects how they get in and out of bed,” says Sara Reid, RN, Assistant Director of Care. “Having these mats at the bedside is like having a security blanket. We truly appreciate that the Jewish Foundation provided this grant.”

Like many other personal care homes, the Simkin Centre strives to minimize the use of restraints in providing care to its residents. While bedside railings might seem like a more logical option to prevent bed-related falls, many experts point out that people can become trapped in the rails and that a resident with impaired judgment might try to climb over.

“When a resident falls, it can lead to reduced mobility, chronic pain, or worse,” says Reid. “These mats will reduce injuries and save lives.”

Year at a Glance | 2017

Women's Endowment Fund Luncheon

In April, celebrated author Margaret Trudeau was the keynote speaker at the Women's Endowment Fund Luncheon at the RBC Convention Centre Winnipeg. More than 450 people – the largest crowd in the luncheon's history – heard Mrs. Trudeau reflect on her life as the wife of Pierre Trudeau and on her mental health struggles. The luncheon, co-chaired by Jessica Cogan and Dr. Dianne Popeski, also honoured the memory of Irma Penn for her contributions to the community.

'An Evening Out'

In May, Elizabeth and Michael Boroditsky hosted a casual event at their home to introduce about 40 people to JFM. Rob Berkowits, JFM's Director of Development & Gift Planning, spoke as did 2017 EBOL signer Rory Paul. Paul told his family's story and spoke about the importance of building a community whose members take care of each other.

Youth in Philanthropy

In May, JFM provided $3,000 to Gray Academy of Jewish Education's Youth in Philanthropy program. Through the Gemilut Chasadim course, Grade 10 students learned about various charities in Winnipeg and supported six organizations with these funds. See page 27 to learn how the students distributed their funds.

JFM Scholarships & Awards Event

In June, JFM distributed close to $139,000 in education awards to 59 recipients at a reception held in the Berney Theatre at the Asper Jewish Community Campus. These awards help students achieve their educational goals. See page 20 for a list of the 2017 recipients.

Annual General Meeting

In June, JFM held its annual general meeting in the Kanee Foyer at the Asper Jewish Community Campus. Among many new volunteer appointments and transitions at this meeting, Dr. Eric Winograd became the Chair of the Foundation while Anita Wortzman became its immediate Past-Chair. # MESSAGE FROM THE CEO & Chair

Looking to the Future

In 2017, two more organizations in our community established Organizational Endowment Funds and qualified for matching funds from the Foundation.

Temple Shalom (Winnipeg's only Reform congregation) and Shalom Residences Foundation (the fundraising arm of Shalom Residences, an organization serving adults with intellectual disabilities) placed their trust in the Foundation and were rewarded for their commitment. Thanks to the FundMatch incentive, Temple Shalom's fund was bolstered by an additional $18,000, while Shalom Residences Foundation attained the maximum BERVIN incentive of $108,000.

There are now 24 Jewish organizations in the community that have opened Organizational Endowment Funds. We thank these organizations for their trust and congratulate them on their foresight and optimism.

The costs of delivering programs and services will continue to rise, so as these Organizational Endowment Funds grow, they will become increasingly important to the financial stability of the community. By opening and growing endowment funds, these organizations are investing now to ensure a reliable source of funding in the future. They are making a statement that they intend to be here, serving the community for the long term.

The engagement of community organizations is a cornerstone of the Foundation's success. Healthy organizational endowments help ensure the vitality of the community. Strong market performance is critical, as is a sound investment strategy. With the oversight of the Investment Committee, our assets are effectively allocated and well managed by leading investment professionals. Above all, though, our success is driven by your financial commitment to the Foundation. The philanthropic spirit of the Jewish community of Winnipeg is legendary – and we see evidence of it all the time.

With your generous gifts, come growth and increased impact. As our asset base expands, there is more we can do to meet the needs of our Jewish community now and in the future. And there is more we can do to enrich life for all Manitobans.

Thank you for your ongoing support. Thank you for building a stronger future.

MESSAGE FROM THE Chief Financial Officer

Growth in Many Ways

For 2017, we are pleased to report that the Foundation's asset base increased to $118 million, a $10 million increase from the previous year. The increase reflects $4.0 million in new endowment contributions and a net return on investments of 9.8%. During 2017, the historical endowment contributions to the Foundation exceeded $100 million. We repeatedly comment that growth for growth's sake is not the Foundation's ultimate objective. Growth translates to increased cash flow of grants and scholarships to the overall community over the long term.

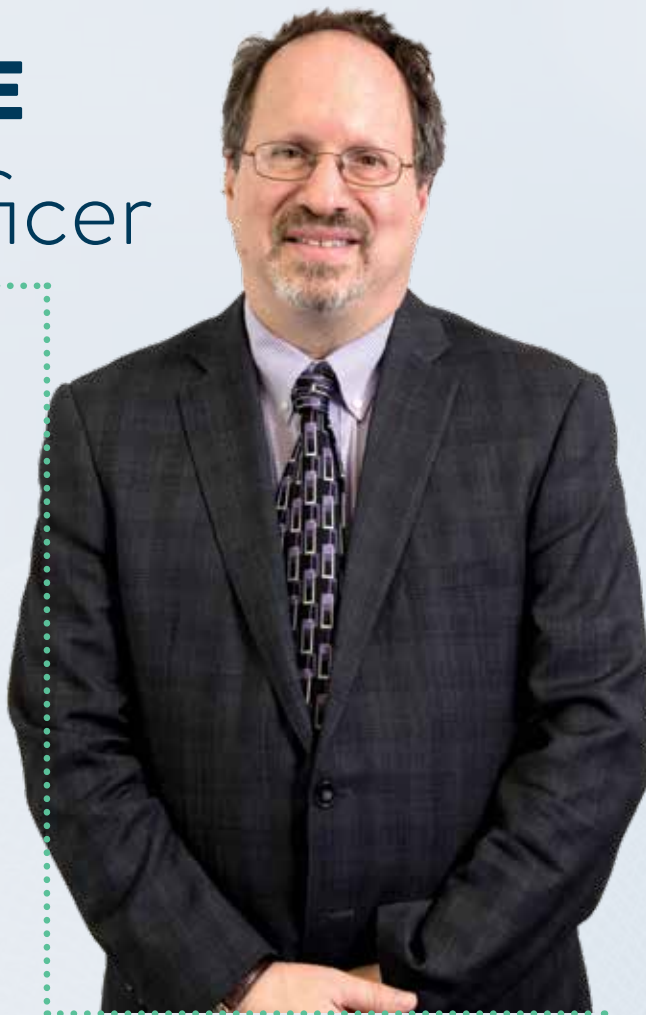

Based on 2017 performance, the Foundation will capitalize, (add back) $3 million of residual income to the endowment funds in 2018.

Community organizations play a significant role in the success of the Foundation. At the end of 2017 through various fund matching programs, 12 organizations have (historically) contributed in aggregate $2.8 million that has qualified for matching capital from the Foundation. In turn, the Foundation shall provide $520,000 in matching capital to these organizations. These types of programs, which provide incremental and permanent annual income to community organizations, are one example of how the Foundation, in concert with its constituents, works to better our community.

During 2017, the Foundation committed almost $1.4 million in grants to the community. The primary reason for this increase over the previous year was a significant $600,000 grant to the Asper Jewish Community Campus in support of security upgrades. Grants for these vital and compelling purposes are only possible through the continued support and confidence in the Jewish Foundation by our donors and beneficiary organizations –for which the Board and staff are extremely appreciative.

The BERVIN Effect

Community Organizations Benefit from Powerful Incentive Fund

The Berdie & Irvin Cohen (BERVIN) Incentive Fund was established in 2014 to provide an incentive to Jewish organizations to grow their endowment funds or establish their first one. The fund is another way the memory of Berdie and Irvin Cohen – a couple remembered for their values, work ethic, upstanding character, and good parenting – is honoured by their son.

In the past, some organizations have been nervous about establishing endowment funds because they understood that they could never access the contributed capital. The BERVIN Incentive Fund addresses that concern, provides a financial incentive, and offers a higher rate of return than a typical GIC.

How does it work?

- When a participating Winnipeg Jewish organization adds $720,000 dollars to its new or existing organizational endowment fund, it triggers a $108,000 incentive contribution from the BERVIN Incentive Fund.
- Once an organization reaches the $1 million mark in new money, they earn the right to withdraw from their endowment fund in the event of a rainy day or special project – this withdrawal cannot exceed 50% of the original $1 million.

What are the guidelines?

- Organizational endowments that qualify for BERVIN must declare at the time of contributing their gift(s) that at least 50% will be allocated to permanent endowment.
- The organization can grow its fund by accumulating gifts from multiple donors.

How does an organization qualify?

- You must be a Jewish organization residing in Manitoba.
- Your organization's primary purpose must be of benefit to Manitoba's Jewish community, the State of Israel, and must be in keeping with the JFM's mission.

FUNDMATCH

FundMatch is an initiative designed to entice organizations to grow their endowment funds according to their capacity. When certain benchmarks are reached, the FundMatch initiative provides an additional contribution to the organizational endowment fund, which generates even more income for that organization.

JFM is grateful to our donors who have provided the matching money for FundMatch. This initiative would not be possible without them.

1 Basis of presentation of the summary financial statements

These summary financial statements have been derived from the audited financial statements of The Jewish Foundation of Manitoba for the year ended December 31, 2017, which are prepared in conformity with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations. The criteria developed by management for the preparation of the summary financial statements is as follows: that the information included in the summarized financial statements is in agreement with the related information in the complete financial statements, and that the summarized financial statements contain the information necessary to avoid distorting or obscuring matters disclosed in the related complete financial statements, including the notes thereto, in all material respects.

Endowment Fund Balances

at December 31, 2017

Our endowment fund listings are organized in two broad categories: (1) Organizational Endowment and Special Interest Funds; and (2) Individual and Family Funds. All distributions from these funds are approved by the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba Board of Directors.

Organizational Endowment and Special Interest Funds | 2017

Organizational Endowment Funds are an important cornerstone of our success as a foundation and as a community. By launching and growing their own endowment funds, our institutions ensure an annual flow of income – in perpetuity. Our Special Interest Funds allow donors to come together to support programs and services more broadly (like Jewish camping, special needs, or women's causes, for example).

Women's Endowment Fund

2017

Income from the WEF is distributed to organizations that successfully apply for funding for projects and programs designed to enhance the lives of women and girls in Manitoba.

A person whose name is followed by the letter "F" was a Founder of the WEF in 1994. A person whose name is followed by the letter "B" stepped forward as a Builder in 2013. We are grateful to these visionary women and to all of our donors.
