WELCOMING NEWCOMERS

A COMMUNITY SHAPED BY KINDNESS AND GENEROSITY

THROUGH VARIOUS WAVES OF IMMIGRATION, THE COMMUNITY HAS ALWAYS SOUGHT TO EMBRACE NEW MEMBERS OF THE COMMUNITY.
TODAY, VIRTUALLY EVERY JEWISH ORGANIZATION IN WINNIPEG REACHES OUT TO NEWCOMERS IN SOME WAY.

From the latter half of the 19th century right through to today, the Jewish community of Winnipeg has always known how to welcome and assist newcomers. Through formal institutions and informal connections, we've been there for each other with a kind word, a Shabbat dinner, a job lead, a minyan, help with learning English, maybe a warm coat to get through a first Manitoba winter.

Through various waves of immigration, the community has always sought to embrace new members of the community. Today, virtually every Jewish organization in Winnipeg reaches out to newcomers in some way. Whether through free or subsidized services, memberships, and tuition; low-interest loans; resettlement services; or new social connections, our community recognizes the importance of helping people feel truly at home.

At the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba, we take great pride in our support of programs that help Jewish newcomers adapt to life in Canada. Since 2001, the JFM has distributed over $300,000 to the Rady Jewish Community Centre, Jewish Child and Family Service, the Gray Academy of Jewish Education, the Gwen Secter Creative Living Centre, and others to help newcomers. The money has gone to English classes for seniors, transportation services to help kids get to school, cultural programs, and much, much more.

Also significant, the JFM's robust scholarship program has helped about 100 newcomers pursue their education – in the last four years alone! Almost half of our scholarship recipients in the past four years are first-generation Canadians and they have collectively received nearly $300,000.

The JFM's role is just one demonstration of our community's values. There are others – too many to describe here. But perhaps through the eyes of three people who were once newcomers to Winnipeg, we can learn about the impact of kindness. The impact of generosity. The impact of tzedakah.

ISAAC GOTFRIED

"I WAS GIVEN A LOT AFTER THE
WAR... WE NEED TO CONTINUE TO BEFRIEND NEWCOMERS AND GET THEM INVOLVED IN THE JEWISH COMMUNITY."

GREETED WITH WARMTH

Isaac Gotfried lived through the horrors of the Holocaust. With good fortune and cunning, Isaac and his brother Bernard<sup>z</sup> survived the harshest, most oppressive circumstances imaginable. When the war was over, the Gotfried brothers initially stayed in Germany. In 1947, their aunt Zlata Mittleman in Winnipeg heard that the boys were still alive and brought them here, skirting immigration rules at the time by saying they were her brothers.

Isaac Gotfried remembers his arrival in Winnipeg: "We were greeted at the CNR station on Main Street by family and some strangers. We were among the first groups of displaced persons (DPs) to arrive in Winnipeg."

They were greeted with fanfare and enthusiasm. "A row of cars went in convoy up Main Street to my aunt's house on Machray Avenue," recalls Gotfried.

On their first day in Winnipeg, Gotfried recalls that his uncle Aaron (Zlata's husband) pressed his suit as well as his brother's as there was to be a party in their honour that very night. And he remembers being encouraged by a cousin to go to the library to get books to learn English. "I shall endeavour to do so," a young Gotfried replied, sparking the laughter of relatives who thought his English might already be "too good"!

That immediate hospitality, those early gestures, and the playful laughter all helped Isaac Gotfried feel welcome. Within a week, another cousin had helped him find a job as a cabinet maker. A good career in cabinetry, confections, and insurance followed.

Today, Gotfried and his wife Hilda are retired and enjoying a beautiful life. Gotfried has been an active community volunteer delivering Kosher Meals on Wheels, helping seniors with their shopping, and, with Hilda, has even volunteered in Israel on two separate occasions. Today, at 88, Gotfried gives back by speaking about his wartime experiences to high school students and adults of all backgrounds.

He experienced horror in Europe, but beauty in Canada.

"I was given a lot after the war," Gotfried says. "We need to continue to befriend newcomers and get them involved in the Jewish community."

MIRTHA LOPEZ

"THE COMPANIONSHIP, THE WARMTH, THE FINANCIAL SUPPORT, AND THE MORAL SUPPORT WERE SO WONDERFUL... THIS IS MY COMMUNITY NOW."

HOME IS WHERE THE LOVE IS

"Home is where the love is," says Mirtha Lopez. And to her, Winnipeg is home.

Dr. Lopez and her family came to Winnipeg from Argentina in 2003. "We will never forget how welcome the Winnipeg Jewish community made us feel from the moment we arrived," she says. Lopez, husband Carlos, and sons Federico and Gaston were greeted at the airport with smiles, hugs, and even a challah.

Once the initial excitement wore off, the challenges of earning a livelihood began. Lopez was a trained psychiatrist with 20 years of experience in Argentina, but her medical credentials were not recognized here. The process to earn the right to practise here was cumbersome, expensive, and long.

Lopez tried to get non-psychiatric counselling work, but was told nearly 40 times that she was over-qualified. Ultimately, Jewish Child and Family Service welcomed her as a counsellor.

The JFM eased Lopez's financial burden by providing a scholarship while she was studying and writing exams to qualify as a Canadian psychiatrist: "I will be eternally grateful to the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba for helping me financially. With the Foundation's support, I was able to reach my goals."

Lopez earned her Canadian licence seven years ago and today she is practising as a full-fledged, recognized psychiatrist at the Selkirk Mental Health Centre.

It wasn't just the JFM that helped Lopez and family. Her family was subsidized at various times by Camp Massad, the Rady JCC, and the Gray Academy. "When we were able to start paying full tuition at the school, we did it with great pride," she says. Lopez also received help from Jewish Immigrant Aid Services of Canada, a loan from the Asper Helping Hand Initiative, and various types of help from Jewish Child and Family Service and the Jewish Federation of Winnipeg. She is especially grateful to Evelyn Hecht who worked so closely with newcomers at the Federation.

"The companionship, the warmth, the financial support, and the moral support were so wonderful," says Lopez. "This is my community now."

GAINING CONFIDENCE, ACHIEVING SUCCESS

For a teen born and raised in Canada, filling out that first job application is no big deal. But imagine being new to the country and not knowing how to speak English.

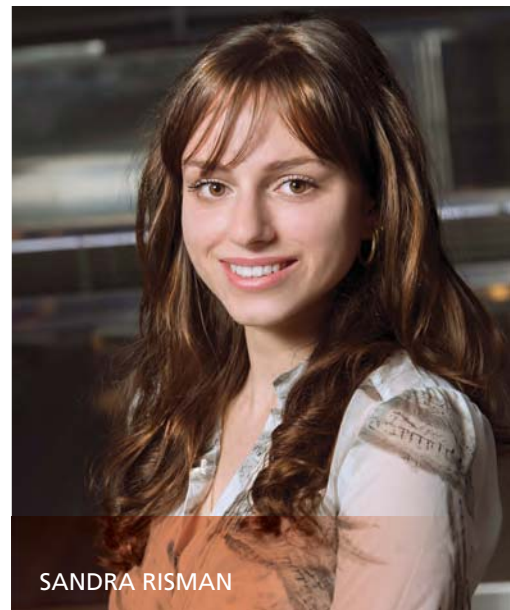

"At first it was bad. I cried all the time and I wanted to leave. I didn't speak English and I didn't know anybody," says Ukrainian-born Sandra Risman, 21, of her arrival in Winnipeg five years ago. "And I needed to find a job. I wasn't sure what to do."

Within a few days of her arrival from Israel with her mother, father, and brother, Sandra connected with Sophia, the daughter of a woman who worked with newcomers at Jewish Child and Family Service. "She helped me fill out an application form at McDonald's and waited for me when I met the manager. She was so helpful."

Risman got the job, gained confidence, and has come a very long way since.

She graduated from the Gray Academy and has just completed her third year of studies at the University of Manitoba's Asper School of Business. Instead of selling burgers during the summer of 2013, she is working in an accounting office. She has been able to pursue her business education thanks, in part, to four scholarships from the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba.

"I'm so grateful for the support. I think our community does a lot for newcomers. There are people who come without a lot of money or contacts, and no furniture," says Risman. "It's important that we make them feel welcome."

SANDRA RISMAN

"I'M SO GRATEFUL FOR THE SUPPORT. I THINK OUR COMMUNITY DOES A LOT FOR NEWCOMERS... IT'S IMPORTANT THAT WE MAKE THEM FEEL WELCOME."

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT AND CEO

As we reflect and report on 2012, the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba inches ever closer to a very special milestone. Starting in the fall of 2014, the Foundation will celebrate its 50th anniversary. It will be a time to celebrate; a time to inspire philanthropy; and a time to look at the future of our impact on the community.

As significant as the milestone and celebration will be, the fact is we are always seeking to inspire philanthropy; and we are always aware of the impact we have on the community. 2012 was no exception. We are pleased to report that we were able to welcome about $3.6 million in new capital, and exceedingly proud that we were able to provide approximately $2.9 million in grants and scholarships.

The money we distribute makes a difference in people's lives. Sometimes it's a small grant to an organization to help replenish vital infrastructure; sometimes it's significant seed funding that helps an organization innovate and deliver a program that might not otherwise get off the ground; and sometimes it's a scholarship that makes the difference between a new Jewish Canadian attending university or not.

As we write this half way through 2013, we are pleased to advise that a move to new investment counsel is complete. After a lengthy, expert-led process of research and due diligence, we have adopted a more passive investment strategy to protect us better from future market volatility and to reduce our management fees.

In the coming weeks and months, you will hear more from us as we revamp our newsletter to share more stories and information with the community, and as we update our website to provide better access to more content and more demonstrations of the impact we truly have.

Over nearly half a century, we have received $80 million in gifts from several thousand donors, and we've distributed more than $45.5 million in grants and scholarships. It's an impressive story of a generous community that is passionate about tzedakah, and whose members care about each other and the wider community in which we live.

Our anniversary will be a time to celebrate, but so is every year when we can work together to serve the community the way we do.

Steve Kroft, President

Marsha Cowan, CEO

MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR OF FINANCE

2012 was a year of growth and transition for the Foundation on a number of fronts.

First, you will notice a change in how we report our financial performance.

New accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations have significantly changed the presentation of financial statements across the sector. For the Foundation, the change is primarily reflected in its investment portfolio and related market activities. Since 2006, when the Foundation started to record its investments on a market value basis, annual changes to market value – or unrealized gains and losses – have been recorded as direct increases or decreases to net assets. Changes in market value were entirely contained within the Statement of Financial Position (the balance sheet). Starting in 2012, annual changes to market value flow through the Statement of Operations (the income statement). The new presentation now reports all activity related to the Foundation's investments on a single statement, the Statement of Operations. The principle behind the change is that total economic activity for an organization includes both realized and unrealized gains and losses – therefore such activities should be treated in the same manner from a reporting perspective. As a result, greater volatility in net income from year to year will be observed primarily from the ebbs and flows of the markets.

The reader is reminded that analysis of this volatility from year to year would not be complete without considering the Foundation's long-term mission and objectives. Over the long term, the volatility tends to smooth out.

The new accounting standards also provided the option to update the carrying values of selected assets on a one-time basis. The Foundation therefore elected to update the fair value of its real estate holdings from their previous nominal historical costs. For example, a property held at Middlechurch, long on the books for its nominal $1 cost, is now captured at its estimated market value of $1.215 million.

For 2012, the annual return on the investment portfolio was 8.3% after fees. Subsequently, the return for the first quarter of 2013 was strong at 4.3% after fees. As reported last year, during 2011 the Investment Committee initiated an exhaustive due diligence exercise of reviewing the Foundation's investment philosophy, structure, advisors, and managers. That process resulted in a major change in the Foundation's investment philosophy – a move to a more "passive" style that follows the index for the various asset classes. Mercer (Canada) Limited was engaged last December to provide strategic and tactical recommendations within this passive strategy. There were some one-time costs associated with this transition, however the Foundation is looking forward to significant savings in investment management fees going forward. Stewardship of the investment process is an ongoing process of "Kaizan" or continuous improvement. The Foundation is fortunate to have access to highly-respected professionals in this regard, many of whom enthusiastically volunteer through their participation on the Investment Committee.

During 2012 the Foundation surpassed the $80 million plateau in total assets.

It is a remarkable achievement, especially for a community of our size. Please take notice of the highlights box on page 10 that offers some notable numbers from 2012.

The Foundation and our donors form a vital partnership that underscores the dynamic nature and addresses the varying priorities of a flourishing community. The staff looks forward to your thoughts and ideas and thanks you for your enthusiastic volunteerism and tremendous generosity. As always, we are grateful for your ongoing support.

The JFM FundMatch Initiative

CELEBRATING FUNDRAISING EXCELLENCE

In 2012, the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba officially launched FundMatch, an initiative designed to provide an incentive to local Jewish organizations to grow their endowment funds at the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba.

Over 10 years, the JFM will designate $1 million toward the program, much of which will come from new gifts specifically targeted to FundMatch.

When a participating organization reaches various levels of new assets, the JFM will top up the effort with a contribution to the organization's endowment fund. When a fund attracts $54,000 in new assets, the JFM will add $18,000 under the terms of the FundMatch agreement. At $180,000, the JFM will add $36,000; at $486,000, the JFM will add $54,000.

At the time of writing, six organizations have signed on so far: the Jewish Heritage Centre of Western Canada; Jewish Child and Family Service; B'nai Brith Jewish Community Camp; Camp Massad; the Rose and Max Rady Jewish Community Centre; and the Gwen Selter Creative Living Centre. To date, the JFM has added $143,971 in total to these organizations' funds to top up the $564,093 they have raised under the FundMatch initiative.

"When an organization succeeds in raising endowment money, it is our pleasure to recognize that success through FundMatch," says JFM CEO Marsha Cowan. "Having a robust endowment fund helps an organization plan for their future. Through FundMatch, we're able to enhance the efforts of our fellow Jewish organizations."
