REFLECTING ON THE EARLY DAYS OF THE JFM

“AS MY FATHERS PLANTED
FOR ME BEFORE I WAS BORN,
SO DO I PLANT FOR THOSE WHO COME AFTER ME.”

IF YOU FOLLOW THE JEWISH FOUNDATION OF MANITOBA, YOU HAVE PROBABLY SEEN THAT LINE. IT IS THE CONCLUSION OF A SHORT TALMUDIC TALE WHEREIN A PASSERBY ASKS AN ELDERLY MAN WHY HE IS PLANTING A CAROB TREE WHEN HE WILL NEVER LIVE LONG ENOUGH TO ENJOY ITS FRUIT. THE MAN RESPONDS BY DECLARING HIS RESPONSIBILITY TO THE NEXT GENERATION. THAT’S WHY HE PLANTED. THAT’S WHY WE STILL PLANT TODAY. THAT IS WHY WE WILL ALWAYS PLANT.

KEN HALPRIN, RETIRED LAWYER, CURRENT MEMBER OF THE FOUNDATION'S BOARD OF GOVERNORS:

"I'm proud that my brothers and some cousins were also signers and remained active. It was a large cohesive group. Many of the founders were friends and relatives and that helped drive the Foundation's successful launch. The original seeds we planted have become flowers."

Ken Halprin sits in his home on a chilly spring day in 2014 and points to a fine reproduction of the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba charter. It is a colourful parchment from 1964 featuring the signatures of 119 leaders of the Jewish community who became Founders of the Foundation.

"These were good people," says Halprin, a retired lawyer.

Not only were they good people, they were visionary. Through the generosity and foresight of these men, the community now enjoys the fruits of a $90 million foundation; an endowment that will bear more fruit in the years ahead.

The Founders – led and inspired by Ken's father, Joseph Halprin, along with brothers Abe and Sam Werier – were motivated 50 years ago by the desire to strengthen the Jewish community and ensure its viability for the future.

The elder Halprin and the Werier brothers, friends from childhood, had a number of business interests together, including some property holdings.

"They were very community-oriented," says Halprin, who continues to serve on the Foundation's Board of Governors. Starting in 1963, "the boys," as Ken Halprin calls them playfully, started thinking about the idea of a foundation. By 1964, they had donated a 300-acre piece of land near Middlechurch, north of the city, to seed the fledgling foundation's asset base. The Foundation still owns this land.

YUDE HENTELEFF, C.M., Q.C.,
PRACTISING LAWYER, PAST
CHAIR OF B'NAI BRITH CAMP
AND PAST PRESIDENT OF THE YMHA:

"It was groundbreaking at the time for a Jewish community to launch a foundation. It was an optimistic group of younger, middle-aged, and older men and I felt deeply honoured to be a part of it."

With a series of meetings in December 1963, the three men started to reach out to active donors and in the community – businessmen, professionals, politicians, volunteers. "People had to be sold on the idea," recalls Halprin, who along with a colleague drafted the first petition for incorporation.

Ultimately, 119 men stepped forward, pledging $100 each to launch the organization and sign the Foundation's charter. As for Halprin's participation? "My father said 'you've got to do it,' so I did it," he laughs.

A series of meetings and procedural steps followed the gatherings in late 1963, with a landmark event held at the Charter House hotel in May 1964 where founders stepped forward to announce their pledges and speak about their enthusiasm for the endeavour.

Among the original Founders were Saul Cherniack, Monte Nathanson, Morley Blankstein, and Yude Henteleff.

Saul Cherniack, who at 97 is the most senior surviving Foundation Founder, says that "there was a feeling at the time that we needed to do something to support the longevity of the community. The Jewish Welfare Fund at the time took care of current needs and the Canadian Jewish Congress had a different purpose. The Foundation was something we were building for the future." Cherniack, a sitting member of the legislature in 1964, was helpful in shepherding the legislative process through all stages.

Monte Nathanson, former President of the Winnipeg Jewish Community Council, recalls being excited at the time about the prospect of the community being able to enhance services and sustain itself for the long term with a community endowment fund that generated income. "It was very important to me that we found a way to take care of the community's long-term needs," he says.

"I remember at the time feeling that there was a sense that our community would change and the needs would evolve over time," says Morley Blankstein. "It proved to be true. We have needs now with childcare and subsidizing newcomers so they can benefit from the community's programs and services, and more. The Foundation helps to meet those needs."

“We are a young community, but we have now come of age. Our present sights must be set to take care of the future. The Foundation is for the future, and we must make a speedy start on this noble work.”

—Joseph Halprin, who along with Sam Werier and Abe Werier, inspired the launch of the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba, 1964.

“The Foundation is one of the better examples of what we have done as a community,” says Yude Henteleff. “By and large, launching the Foundation was an expression of optimism, hope, and great expectations.”

In 1966, the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba started to demonstrate its impact by making its first distributions: $300 to the Winnipeg Hebrew Free School; $300 to the I.L. Peretz Folk School; $300 to Jewish Child and Family Service; and $100 to the Golden Age Club. In total – $1,000.

In 2013, the Foundation distributed over $2.5 million to the Jewish community and to groups that help Manitobans of all backgrounds – 238 organizations in total.

Says Henteleff: “Whatever hopes we had at the time have been realized beyond anything we had hoped for.”

HON. SAUL CHERNIACK, P.C., C.M., O.M., Q.C., RETIRED LAWYER, FORMER HEAD OF THE JEWISH WELFARE FUND, FORMER NATIONAL VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE CANADIAN JEWISH CONGRESS, AND FORMER MEMBER OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY:

“I was attracted to the idea of a foundation because of its permanence and by the fact that it would support the Jewish community.”

MONTE NATHANSON, FORMER PRESIDENT OF THE WINNIPEG JEWISH COMMUNITY COUNCIL AND THE FIRST PERSON TO NAME THE JFM AS THE BENEFICIARY OF A LIFE INSURANCE POLICY:

“I was concerned about what might happen if future generations were less generous than ours. I saw the Foundation as a way to take care of our needs for all time. I’m thrilled that we’ve reached $90 million and the community is still generous. We should be grateful for the hard work done by the late Izzy Peltz and by later executives, David Cohen and Marsha Cowan.”

How it all came together: a timeline

- In October 1963, a small group of men led by Joseph Halprin, Abe Werier, and Sam Werier, gathered to move forward with plans to launch the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba.
- As momentum grew, three more meetings were held in December 1963. The minutes of the December 28 meeting noted: "Mr. J. Halprin outlined a plan to hold a meeting of leading citizens on Tuesday, January 14th, 1964, at the Fort Garry Hotel."
- The first meeting of the Board was called for Wednesday, January 1, 1964, at 11 a.m. at 300 Main Street. Attendees were: E.J. Aronovitch, Samuel Cohen, Joseph Halprin, Archie R. Micay, Morris Neaman, Joseph Wolinsky, Saul Simkin, and David Slater.
- A petition to the Legislature was signed on January 14, 1964, by more than 100 founders. On that same day, the donation of the land in Middlechurch by Joseph Halprin, Sam Werier, and Abe Werier was made.
- On April 16, 1964, Royal Assent was granted to the petition submitted on January 14. The first meeting after Royal Assent was held on Sunday, May 3, 1964, at the Charter House.
- The Foundation's by-laws were passed at a meeting held on June 15, 1964.
- On July 31, 1964, the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba was registered under the provisions of Subdivision I of Division I of Part XVII of the Companies Act.
- The JFM was approved as a charitable corporation on November 19, 1964.

Above: The JFM charter was signed in 1964 by the Founders of the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba. Its text adorns the walls of the JFM office, reminding all who visit of the Foundation's rich history.

The year at a glance 2013

2013 marked another successful year for the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba. Our events attracted large, engaged audiences; our assets grew through new gifts and strong market performance; and, most important, the dollars we distributed had an impact. Your JFM builds community and improves people's lives.

In 2013, the JFM provided funds to 238 different organizations, often funding projects and programs that would otherwise go unfunded or underfunded. Through ongoing dialogue with stakeholders, we gain a thorough understanding of community needs.

In 2013, the JFM provided over $132,585 in Education Awards to 68 recipients. These awards help students achieve their educational goals. See page 14 for a list of this year's recipients.

In September, more than 400 people gathered at Congregation Etz Chayim to welcome 27 new signers to the Endowment Book of Life planned giving program. Guests were entertained by Winnipeg musical legends Allan Blye, Norman Mittelman, and Aubrey Tadman.

The JFM supported Manitoba Theatre for Young People's play, Dying to be Thin. This play addresses issues of body image and eating disorders. Thousands of young people saw this important production.

"Through the generosity of the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba and its donors, Gray Academy of Jewish Education has been able to grow into one of Canada's premier independent schools.

More important, however, is that the Foundation's support has allowed Jewish children to attend our Jewish day school and become leaders in our Jewish and broader communities. As our students and graduates continue to 'pay it forward,' we honour the philanthropy of the Foundation."

- Rory Paul,

Head of School, Gray Academy of Jewish Education;
Chief Executive Officer, Winnipeg Board of Jewish Education

In May, the Women's Endowment Fund welcomed Margaret Redmond as guest speaker for the annual WEF Luncheon. Redmond, President and CEO of the Assiniboine Park Conservancy, spoke about the power of philanthropy.

The Women's Endowment Fund supported the Mosaic Newcomer Family Resource Centre's resilience training initiative for 19 facilitators. The goal of this project is to help parents develop their own resilience and to model it in their parenting.

The JFM is a proud supporter of March of the Living, an international program that teaches youth about the horrors of the Holocaust. The program includes intensive study and travel to Poland and Israel. Over the years, the program has reached thousands of Jewish youth.

Craig Kielburger – co-founder of We Day, Me to We, and Free The Children – inspired an audience of 550 at the Foundation's Annual Luncheon, held October 31 at the Fairmont Winnipeg. He spoke with admiration about the Foundation's work and encouraged attendees to continue to build a better world. He was thanked with a long, loud standing ovation from an audience that included many young members of the community.

The JFM supported Indigenous and International Craft Workshops run by Mentoring Artists for Women's Art. This project offers free workshops taught by Aboriginal and new Canadian women, bringing both communities together in a spirit of creativity and sharing.

A JFM grant in 2013 helped Jewish Child and Family Service provide English language classes for seniors who are new to Canada. The classes also provide seniors with the opportunity to socialize and build a connection with the Jewish community.

In 2013, the JFM provided $3,000 to the Gray Academy of Jewish Education's Youth in Philanthropy program. See page 18 to learn how the students distributed the funds.

A time of gratitude

In May 2014 as we prepare this message, it's hard not to feel grateful.

To begin, please take another look at this report's front cover. Morley Blankstein, Saul Cherniack, Ken Halprin, and Yude Henteleff were among the 119 inspiring men who gathered together in 1964 to bring your Jewish Foundation of Manitoba to life. So was Monte Nathanson, who is also quoted in this report. These Founders – responding to the vision and the invitation of Joseph Halprin, Abe Werier, and Sam Werier (all of blessed memory) – came together because they believed in our community. They celebrated Jewish life. They cared about the future.

Fast-forward 50 years, and the future is here. What began as a series of $100 donations and a donated plot of land near Middlechurch, Manitoba, has become a $90 million endowment whose annual impact on the Jewish community and the community at large is pervasive. In fact, since 1964, we have distributed more than $48.5 million. We are grateful for the foresight of our Founders.

And we are inspired by their example as we continue to address the Jewish imperative of tikkun olam – the repair of the world.

We are also grateful for our dynamic donor base. While the recent favourable market has given our asset base a boost, the more important source of our continued strength is philanthropy. It has been since day one. Year after year, new donors step forward to grow current endowment funds and establish new ones. And year after year, more people step forward to participate in the Endowment Book of Life planned giving program. This type of commitment to the JFM is essential for the community's future.

Our volunteers and staff are also deserving of our gratitude. Our Board members, our committee members, and our staff take their work with the Foundation very seriously. They are driven by a passion for community excellence and they all recognize that they are part of an exceptional organization that makes a real difference in people's lives. We are grateful for their skill and their hard work.

We've asked you to take a look at our front cover. Now take a look at the back cover.

We are so proud and honoured to be able to celebrate together as a community on October 27, 2014. Our 50th anniversary presents us all with the opportunity to reflect on our growth as a Foundation and our success as a community.

Our anniversary is also a time to renew our efforts and to commit ourselves to building an even stronger future. We owe that to our Founders; we owe that to our children and grandchildren; we owe that to each other.

With gratitude,

Joseph J. Wilder, Q.C. President

Marsha Cowan
Chief Executive Officer

A year of growth

During 2013, the Foundation's investment portfolio benefited from strong performance in the equity markets, resulting in a total return of 13.83% before fees vs. a portfolio index return of 13.96%. The return after fees was 13.73%.

As a result of the strong market performance, the Foundation allocated $7.1 million to its Reserve Fund. The purpose of the Reserve Fund is to provide a funding source for grants, designated distributions, and scholarships during periods of adverse market conditions – when the market return is insufficient to meet the Foundation's distribution requirements. The Foundation's objective for the Reserve Fund is to have the ability to provide uninterrupted distributions for a two-year period. By the end of 2013, the Reserve Fund reached 88.7% of that objective.

A healthy Reserve Fund is a key element of the Foundation's success. In 2008, when the market experienced a significant downturn, the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba was able to continue distributing to the community.

Noted in last year's message, new accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations now mandate that all market activity flow through the income statement (previously reflected in the balance sheet). This will result in greater volatility in net income from year-to-year due to the ebbs and flows of the markets. Our ongoing message is that while these financial statements focus on activities and balances for a one-year period, the Jewish Foundation was established and exists to support the community over the long term. While the day-to-day operating activities require ongoing stewardship, investment and financial objectives are determined and evaluated by the Board of Directors over the long term, which is appropriate for a community foundation. For example, the Foundation has experienced substantial recovery from the 2008 market depression. For the five-year period from 2009 to 2013 the annualized or "average" return was 9.27%. It is these longer-term trends that provide greater perspective to the annual financial statements and the evaluation of overall performance.

We are extremely proud that during 2013 the Foundation's asset base surpassed $90 million. In turn, this growth provides greater distribution to the community in the future. The success of the Foundation is entirely attributable to its constituents: the volunteers, donors, beneficiary organizations, and the ongoing support of the community at large. Through your efforts, the endowment distributed $2.9 million to the community during 2013, and facilitated an additional $352,000 of distribution through direct gifts from donors. New contributions to the Foundation were $2.4 million. As always, we are grateful for your generosity and ongoing support.

“...the Foundation has experienced substantial recovery from the 2008 market depression.”

Fund to Inspire Winnipeg Jewish Organizations

Organizational endowment funds are at the very heart of the sustainability of our community. As these funds grow, more annual income is generated for Jewish organizations that meet our educational, cultural, spiritual, and social service needs.

Now, thanks to the new Berdie & Irvin Cohen Organizational Endowment Incentive Fund (the Bervin Incentive Fund) Jewish organizations have even greater reason to expand their funds or, in the case of a few organizations in the community, establish their first-ever organizational endowment fund. The Fund is another way the memory of Berdie and Irvin Cohen – a couple remembered for their values, work ethic, upstanding character, and good parenting – is honoured by their son.

Here's how it works:

- When a participating Winnipeg Jewish organization adds $1 million in new money to its new or existing organizational endowment fund with the JFM, it triggers a $108,000 “incentive” contribution to their endowment from the Bervin Incentive Fund.

- Participating organizations are motivated to encourage their supporters to contribute to their endowment fund.
- These same organizations are encouraged to deposit funds they already have held in reserve.
- As an added bonus, once participating organizations reach the $1 million mark in new money, not only do they trigger the incentive contribution to their endowment, they also earn the right to “dip into” or withdraw from their endowment fund in the event of a “rainy day” or a special project. Withdrawal cannot exceed 50% of the original $1 million.
- The organization will continue to earn income on the balance that remains with the Foundation, and the organization can make further contributions, at its discretion, to rebuild to $1 million and beyond.
- Participating organizations are required to establish, increase, or broaden their relationship with the State of Israel through meaningful and innovative initiatives.
- Participating organizations have until 2025 to reach $1 million in new money.

“We’re very excited that we are able to launch the Berdie & Irvin Cohen Organizational Endowment Incentive Fund,” said Foundation CEO Marsha Cowan.

“It addresses an important need in our community as organizations consider their futures.”

Many organizations in the community already have organizational endowments – some for a very long time, said Cowan. The new incentive program encourages these organizations to revisit their endowment profile and expand their funds.

For organizations that have never had an endowment fund, this is a particularly exceptional opportunity.

“Sometimes an organization wrestles with what to do with the proceeds from major events, or from the sale of property, or from a large bequest,” said Cowan. “And we’ve occasionally heard that organizations are nervous to establish endowment funds because they understood that they could never access the contributed capital. This new program addresses that concern, provides a financial incentive, and offers a higher rate of return than a typical GIC.”

At least four organizations have expressed interest so far and one of them has made a firm commitment, said Cowan: “We look forward to working with them and helping them to achieve their objectives. And we look forward to hearing from other organizations.”

FundMatch Gains Momentum in 2013

In 2012, the JFM launched FundMatch, an initiative designed to entice organizations to grow their endowment funds. When certain fund benchmarks are reached, the FundMatch initiative will provide an additional contribution to the organizational endowment fund, which will generate even more income for that organization.

Six community organizations are already enrolled in the program: the Jewish Heritage Centre of Western Canada; Jewish Child and Family Service; B'nai Brith Jewish Community Camp; Camp Massad; the Rose and Max Rady Jewish Community Centre; and the Gwen Sector Creative Living Centre.

As at December 31, 2013, donors had contributed $1,017,855 to these organizations' funds. JFM has committed a total of $203,412 to match these donations. As a result, the total increase to the organizational funds will earn an estimated $48,000 of income annually. This represents a significant increase of support to our local Jewish organizations.

The JFM is grateful for the visionary leadership of our first donors who provided the matching money. Without them the FundMatch initiative would not be possible. This list of donors is current as of December 31, 2013:

Carole & Sheldon Berney Fund

ENDOWMENT FUND BALANCES AT DECEMBER 31, 2013

IN THIS ANNUAL REPORT, OUR ENDOWMENT FUND LISTINGS ARE ORGANIZED IN TWO BROAD CATEGORIES: (1) ORGANIZATIONAL AND SPECIAL INTEREST FUNDS; AND (2) INDIVIDUAL AND FAMILY FUNDS. ALL DISTRIBUTIONS FROM THESE FUNDS ARE APPROVED BY THE JEWISH FOUNDATION OF MANITOBA BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

ORGANIZATIONAL ENDOWMENT AND SPECIAL INTEREST FUNDS

Organizational Endowment Funds are an important cornerstone of our success as a foundation and as a community. By launching and growing their own endowment funds, our institutions ensure an annual flow of income – in perpetuity. Our Special Interest Funds allow donors to come together to support programs and services more broadly (like Jewish camping, special needs, or women's causes, for example).

Women's Endowment Fund

Income from the WEF is distributed to organizations that successfully apply for funding for projects and programs designed to enhance the lives of women and girls in Manitoba.

A person whose name is followed by the letter "F" was a Founder of the WEF in 1998. A person whose name is followed by the letter "B" stepped forward as a Builder in 2013. We are grateful to these visionary women and to all of our donors.

INDIVIDUAL AND FAMILY FUNDS (DESIGNATED AND UNDESIGNATED)

Endowment funds at the Foundation are either Undesignated or Designated. Undesignated funds give the Foundation flexibility to address current and emerging community priorities and fulfill annual scholarship and grant obligations.
